Pflimlin Ready To Quit Despite Approval Vote

Wedding Party Surprises Statehouse

Nebraska's Statehouse was all agog Tuesday when it discovered it had a brand new bride and groom, complete with their wedding party, touring the Capitol. Explaining that they were "just killing time" between morning and late afternoon wedding receptions, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kouma of Weston said they decided to spend that time touring the building. Pictured in the Capitol's ornate rotunda are: Tommy Hottovy of Brainard who served as ring bearer; flower girl Patricia Ann Benes of Plattsmouth; the groom and bride, and behind them (left to right) Mrs. Dan Benes and Dan Benes of Lincoln, Gladys Kouma of Dwight and Larry Sabatka of Wahoo. (Star Photo.)

Crisis Holds

GEN. DE GAULLE STANDS ON SIDELINE

Paris (Wednesday) (AP)—Premier Pflimlin won strong support in the National Assembly Wednesday, but immediately tried to quit his job in the face of Gen. de Gaulle's bold challenge for power.

Pflimlin was persuaded by President Rene Coty to stay on until a new government is ready to take over.

Coty then started urgent talks in an effort to find a new premier.

Pflimlin

There were these fast developments:

1. The National Assembly defied Rightist - military leaders demanding de Gaulle's return and gave Pflimlin a firm vote of confidence.

2. Pflimlin called an emergency cabinet meeting.

3. From the cabinet meeting the premier went to call on President Rene Coty at Elysee Palace and offered to resign.

Coty Refuses

4. President Coty refused to accept the resignation, saying that it would not be acceptable until a new government is ready to take over.

5. Coty began urgent consultations in an effort to find a premier to replace Pflimlin. He did not accept the resignation since he wished to avoid any gap between governments.

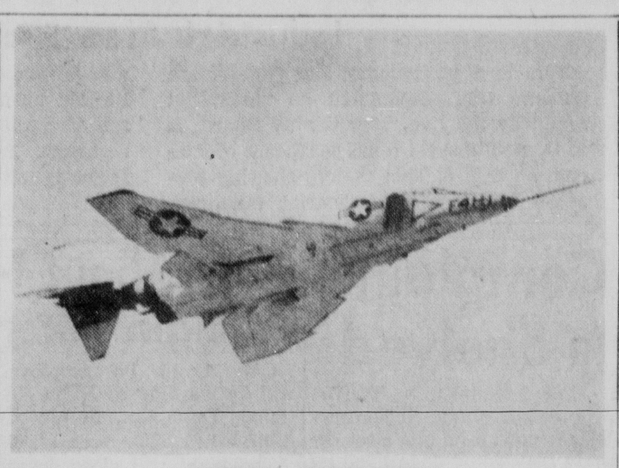

De Gaulle towered over all potential candidates, but there was doubt whether he could muster majority approval in the Assembly. The general has said he wants to take power, but only through legal means.

Crisis Persists

This raised the grave question of a continuing impasse in France's greatest postwar crisis.

The Assembly endorsement appeared to give Pflimlin more time to deal with the myriad problems confronting the French government. But the premier's decision that he wanted out brought new confusion.

Sources close to Pflimlin said he wanted to quit, apparently to honor undisclosed promises made to de Gaulle in a secret meeting Tuesday. There was no word on what the promises might be.

Senate Unit Urges Red Satellite Aid

. . . Knowland To Fight Against Plan

Washington (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations committee urged an economic aid program for Russia's European satellites Tuesday to widen cracks it said had appeared in the Iron Curtain.

Sen. William F. Knowland of California announced he would lead a fight against the proposal on the Senate floor.

"I do not think the granting of mutual aid to the Communist countries can be justified," he declared. Knowland is the Senate's Republican leader.

The issue took shape as the committee reported a $3,712,900,000 foreign aid bill to the Senate. The measure authorizes 235 million dollars less than President Eisenhower asked for the fiscal year starting July 1. It could be cut further on the floor.

Unprecedented authority is proposed for President Eisenhower to give financial help to Yugoslavia, Poland, East Germany or any other country except Russia and Red China. The President could do this if he believed it would help make the recipients more independent of Moscow or Peiping.

"A series of cracks have appeared in the Iron Curtain," the committee reported "This is conclusive evidence that the subject peoples of eastern Europe have never fully accepted communism."

While there are risks in pouring American money into Communist areas, the committee added, it "believes that the risks are outweighed by the increasing chance for world peace which may result if the United States can help some countries within the Communist bloc gradually to loosen their bonds."

Knowland, on the other hand, contends that the mutual security program was founded on the theory that help should be provided only for nations that are willing to stand together in maintenance of the free world.

Vanguard Disappears

21½-Pound Sphere Hurled Into Space; Navy Unable To Say If It's In Orbit

Washington (UPI) — The Navy satellite launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., performed abnormally and it is not known if it is in orbit, the National Academy of Sciences announced early Wednesday.

Cape Canaveral, Fla. (AP) — A Vanguard rocket hurled a fourth potential American satellite into space Tuesday night but the Navy was unable to say early Wednesday if it went into orbit.

"The picture is mixed," a Project Vanguard spokesman told newsmen waiting in Washington for official word on the success or failure of the launching.

Radio signals from the basketball-sized sphere were picked up quickly by receiving stations in the British West Indies and the Bahama Islands. Then a confusing silence followed.

At San Diego, Calif., where reception of the satellite's broadcast would have established its first successful circuit of the earth, no signal was reported early Wednesday.

The satellite was expected to complete its first pass around the globe in about 2 hours, or about 12:47 a.m.

In New York, Radio Corp, of America observers said it was doubtful that the satellite orbited. RCA picked up signals from the satellite from 11:50 p.m. until 12:08 a.m.

Not Heard

Had it orbited, the center normally would have heard its broadcast again in a little over an hour, but it did not.

A perfect performance by the Vanguard in the early stages of its flight led a reliable scientific source to say that it had placed the satellite into orbit.

Less than an hour after the slender Vanguard rode a white hot tail of flame into a black Florida night sky, the scientist said "it got the job done."

Ground instruments showed that all 3 stages of the rocket fired as planned, he said.

Little Doubt

And reports from tracking stations down the Atlantic Ocean range which picked up signals from the space traveler in the early stages of its flight left little reason for doubt that the Vanguard had carried out its mission.

The rocket streaked upward with a 21½-pound satellite equipped to solve the mysteries of ultraviolet radiation from the sun.

If it went into orbit, Vanguard II joined 4 other satellites now circling the earth. Vanguard I, the Army's Explorer I and III, and Sputnik III.

Postal Boost Inked

Ike Signs, Says Its Increases 'Inadequate'

Washington (UPI) — President Eisenhower signed the bill to raise postal rates and wages Tuesday, saying its "public interest" features outweighed its objectionable provisions.

The measure will bring in an additional 550 million dollars a year in postal revenues by increasing first class letters from 3 to 4 cents, hiking air mail from 6 to 7 cents and raising second and third class rates.

The new law also carried pay raises of 265 million dollars a year for the nation's 520,000 postal employes, retroactive to last Jan. 2.

The President said in a statement that the increases were "inadequate" although they generally were in line with requests he made to Congress as early as January, 1954.

But he said several provisions caused him "grave concern," including one which would assess the Treasury for an "excessive amount of postal service costs" instead of levying them against users of the mails.

100 Million Yearly

He said these postal services, described by Congress as public services, would cost about 100 million dollars a year and "logically and equitably" should have been financed through proper rates of postage."

"The second matter which concerns me is the failure of the Congress to provide sufficient revenues to meet the full cost of operating the postal service," Eisenhower said.

He said the bill adopted a pay-as-you-go policy for the Post Office Department but then fell short of its own goal "by several hundred million dollars."

The President also was dissatisfied with the wage section of the bill. He said it was only fair for the government to pay postal workers salaries "generally comparable with those prevailing in non-governmental. . . work of similar difficulty and responsibility."

Ress Doesn't Like Lincoln's Interstate Connection Plans

By Virgil Falloon

Preliminary schemes for Lincoln "access connections" with the Interstate Highway were doused with cold water Tuesday by State Engineer L. N. Ress.

"Frankly," said Ress, "I didn't like any of the plans."

Not yet made public by Lincoln officials, the plans were advanced by Eldridge Lovelace of Harland Bartholomew and Associates at a closed meeting in the Capitol with Ress and city officials.

Present were Mayor Bennett Martin, several Council members, George Barton, city traffic consultant, and other city engineering and planning officials.

Ress said one proposal routed a 4-lane traffic connection from the Interstate "corridor" along 7th street, passing under the O street viaduct, and "dropping off at N and nowhere."

Ran 'This Way And That'

Other proposals included the Interstate "corridor" north of Oak Lake or about Adams street, Ress said, but then "ran this way and that."

He indicated one hit about 9th and 10th and P, Q or R and another ran into 16th and 17th. Bartholomew cost estimates "spread from $3.5 to $8 million," he recalled. He questioned how such projects could be financed.

Ress said the plans have given him "no reason to change my mind" about the state-proposed No. 9th and 10th access routes to the Interstate already approved by the Federal Bureau of Roads.

City's Concern

Earlier this year, the Council authorized the $8,925 planning study when city officials expressed concern that the state-proposed routes would "choke off" the University of Nebraska campus, State Fairgrounds and Belmont area and "create a serious traffic problem to the business district."

The Bartholomew firm was retained at $7,425 for the planning study, while Barton will receive $1,500 for analysis of traffic flow and intersection problems. The University contributed $2,500 toward the study.

Preliminary studies were previewed last April before the City Planning Commission with the complete, preliminary report to be presented Wednesday to the Commission.

A Heap Of Negotiating Needed To Set Route

By Betty Person

It appeared Tuesday night that state and city officials, and planning consultants hired by the city and University of Nebraska, have a lot of negotiating to do before an agreement can be reached on the location of the interstate highway connection to downtown Lincoln.

One authoritative source reported that "everyone is pretty well agreed on the connection south from interstate route 1 north of Lincoln to 6th and Adams," but from there south, the trouble begins.

The state's proposed route south from 6th and Adams heads in a southeasterly direction across Cornhusker Highway near 9th, from there across the corner of Oak Creek Park, then running between 8th and 9th to the Burlington tracks where it branches into the 9th and 10th one-way pair.

The interstate highway would end at S, under the state's proposal.

Alternates

Alternates suggested by the city's planning consultants included branching off the state's plan at the southeast corner of Oak Lake, curving west to near 6th and Charleston, then curving east to the Burlington tracks at 9th then taking the 9th and 10th one-way pair.

Another route suggested by Bartholomew and Associates would keep the state's route as far south as 8th and Court, and from there angle west to 7th and Charleston, then south on 7th to N.

Informed sources said the planning consultants had no plans yet on how to route traffic south, east or west from N.

Another plan advanced by the planning consultants, but one which definitely is not concerned with the interstate highway in any manner, is a proposal that the city build a throughway from 9th and Cornhusker southeasterly to 19th and near T.

This would be necessary if the University should get its request that 14th, 16th and 17th be closed to through traffic from R north to the Burlington tracks.

The south end of the throughway would connect with 16th and 17th, a one-way pair, at either P and Q, or Q and R, whichever would be designated as an east-west one-way pair.

Car-Truck Crash Kills Aurora Man

Grand Island, Neb. (AP)—Art England, 76-year-old retired Aurora farmer, was killed Tuesday in a car-pickup truck crash 10 miles southeast of Grand Island on Highway 34.

The driver of the pickup, Martin Almquist, 32, Grand Island, was hospitalized with undetermined injuries.

Almquist, an architectural engineer, is a 1949 graduate of the University of Nebraska.

England was driving his auto east and reportedly was making a left turn onto a county road when the crash occurred. His car overturned and he was pinned underneath.

The death raised Nebraska's 1958 traffic fatality toll to 94, as against 97 at this time last year.

Juvenile Transfer For Caril 'Unconstitutional'

. . . State Opposes Defense Appeal

By Betty Person

The Nebraska statute cited by Caril Fugate's attorney as reason for transferring her murder case from District Court to Juvenile Court was termed unconstitutional Tuesday by the Attorney General's office in a brief filed with the Nebraska Supreme Court.

The state's highest tribunal will hear oral arguments June 6 on a motion which would permit the transfer of Caril Fugate's murder case from Lancaster District Court to Juvenile Court as sought by her court-appointed attorney John McArthur.

According to the State's brief, if the "literal language" of Section 43-211, as "interpreted" by Miss Fugate's attorney, were decreed law, "then those juveniles who commit murder in Douglas and Lancaster counties could at most only be confined until they are 21, whereas in the rest of the state juveniles would be subject to the normal statutory penalties of the criminal law.

'Not Intended'

"No one can seriously argue that our Legislature intended such a result, or that our Constitution would permit it," the brief continued.

Deputy Attorney General Clarence A. H. Meyer wrote the state's brief which was signed by Attorney General C. S. Beck.

Section 43-211 cited by McArthur reads: "When in any county where a Juvenile Court is held, as provided in Section 43-204 (in counties of more than 50,000 population), a child under the age of 16 years is arrested with or without warrant, such child may, instead of being taken before a justice of the peace or public magistrate, be taken directly before such court, or if the child is taken before a justice of the peace or police magistrate, it shall be the duty of such justice of the peace or police magistrate to transfer the case to such court, and the officer having the child in charge, to take the child before that court . . ."

The state maintained in its brief that this has "no application" to the Fugate case because it refers "only to cases which are within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace or police magistrate . . . such as misdemeanors, and has no application to cases in which they may sit only as examining magistrates."

The state's brief further contended that the statute was unconstitutional because it "seeks to control the jurisdiction, powers, proceedings and practice of courts of a certain grade or class" in counties with more than 50,000 population, "without seeking to impose similar controls" on similar courts in the state's other counties.

FAIR SKIES AND COOLER ON AGENDA

Generally fair weather was forecast for Nebraska Wednesday, with the Weather Bureau predicting temperature highs of 75-85.

Lincoln reported the high state reading Tuesday, with the Air Base noting 86 degrees and the city 85.

Early morning showers Tuesday produced 30 m.p.h. winds and .06 inch precipitation at Lincoln. Other precipitation reports included Hastings, .71 inch, and North Platte, .61 inch.

The weekly weather and crop bulletin noted that "winter wheat prospects remain exceptionally promising in the central and southern Great Plains" with "early fields heading in southern Nebraska."

CALIFORNIA, STORK SNAG TEACHERS

Schools Superintendent Steven N. Watkins made the following comment on the problem of hiring and keeping school teachers to the Lincoln School Board Tuesday: "It's a race between California and the stork."

Teacher resignations included 3 for maternity reasons, 2 for teaching jobs in California.

County Okays Industrial Site

...600-Acre Designation Approved

By Del Harding

In a move to attract industry to Lincoln the County Board Tuesday unanimously approved the designation of a 600-acre site northeast of Lincoln as an "industrial area."

The owner of the land, attorney Edwin H. Hammond of Lincoln, appeared before the Board along with several other persons and reiterated his belief that the site is an ideal one for industry. Hammond had proposed Apr. 16 that the site be given the industrial area designation by the Board (which excludes it from annexation by the city) and the Board discussed the matter May 13 and May 20 but had taken no action.

The Board also changed the zoning on the land from agricultural to industrial. The land is located about 3 miles northeast of Lincoln on the north side of U.S. 6, and is adjacent to a proposed interchange of the Interstate Highway and is crossed by the CB&Q Railroad line.

$219,000 Package

Hammond has said he will sell the 600-acre tract in a package for about $219,000 to an industrial firm, although he has no particular firm now in mind. He said this price is comparable to that of farm land, and he is offering it for this figure because he wants to encourage industries to locate in Lincoln.

Backing Hammond's request Tuesday were Elwood Thompson, president of the Lincoln Industrial Development Corp.; Herman Ginsburg, local attorney; Harold Hoppe, Chamber of Commerce president; Charles V. Price, director of the State Resources Division; and Clark Deane, vice president of The Gas Co.

Price said flatly that if Lincoln does not have a tract suitable for industry the city simply will not get any new industries to locate here.

Hoppe noted that the price Hammond is asking for the land ($365 an acre) is considerably less than the $1,000 an acre the Cushman Motor Works Inc. paid for a 110-acre site south of Lincoln adjacent to State 2.

'A Bargain'

Thompson urged the Board to approve the industrial designation, and termed the price Hammond is asking "a bargain." He said the site would give boosters of industry "something to talk about" in their efforts to induce an industry in locating in Lincoln.

Board Chairman Russell Brehm commented that the "people of Lincoln demand that we approve this application," but said he believed such future applications should be approved by a joint city-county planning commission to assure that they would fit in with a comprehensive plan for county development.

City and county officials are now working out the details of forming a joint zoning commission and it is expected to be in operation by July 1.

Hammond said the site is being advertised throughout the country in newspapers and trade publications in an attempt to interest an industry in locating there. He told the Board that possibly a plant interested in using spent fuel elements from the proposed Hallam atomic energy plant might want the site.

Cites New Uses

Hammond noted that widespread uses of these fuel elements are expected to be found, and that predictions are that many by-product plants will spring up around the Hallam plant. He cited as an example of such a by-product firm a plant which would use gamma radiation to preserve food.

The establishment of the industrial area by the Board was in line with a law passed last year by the State Legislature giving it the power to set aside large land areas for future industrial development, and prohibiting them from being annexed to cities. The Board Nov. 26 approved such a designation for the 631-acre site for the atomic plant to be built by Consumers Public Power District one mile north of Hallam.

It is believed that these 2 sites are the only ones in the state which have been so designated since the law was passed.

Ress Doesn't Like Interstate Plans

lace presented a basic concept for 2 lead-in routes forming a fork around the University campus from the Interstate corridor and "tying into" the downtown area west of 9th and east of 17th.

4 Possible

The complete preliminary report is expected to outline 4 possible plans with variations for 7 routing schemes.

Following the meeting with Ress, city officials again met with Lovelace and Barton behind closed doors Tuesday afternoon in Mayor Martin's office. Martin was present for part of the meeting.

Afterwards, one official advised The Star that the scheduled Wednesday afternoon meeting would also be "closed to newsmen" when Bartholomew's plans are presented to the Planning Commission.

Pressed for an explanation, the official advised that Mayor Martin should be contacted.

No Comment

Martin said he would not comment as to whether he thought the Commission meeting should be open or closed.

Commission Chairman E. J. Faulkner said he "personally favored open meetings," but that the Bartholomew presentation was planned for an "executive session."

He said the Commission "doesn't know what the report will disclose and wanted an opportunity to study it without controversy and publicity at this time."

Asked if Mayor Martin had suggested the doors be closed on the Bartholomew report, Faulkner said the reporter could draw his own conclusions.

Several weeks ago, when the Commission had scheduled the Wednesday meeting with the Bartholomew official, its members indicated an open meeting and that Mayor Martin should be contacted concerning "interested persons" that would be present.

Wheat Quota Vote Slated For June 20

Wheat growers in Nebraska and 37 other states will decide June 20 whether marketing quotas will be in effect next year.

If two-thirds of the farmers voting nationally approve marketing quotas, farmers will have to comply with their wheat acreage allotments to qualify for the support price of $1.81 per bushel.

Should marketing quotas be rejected nationally, the support price of wheat would drop to 50% of parity or about $1.20 a bushel for those farmers who comply with wheat acreage allotments.

Under marketing quotas, those who harvest more wheat acres than their allotment are ineligible for price support and for soil bank payments and are subject to the marketing quota penalty unless the excess wheat is held off the market.

Rayburn Backs Up No-Tax-Cut

Washington (AP) — House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) just about nailed it down Tuesday: There won't be any big anti-recession tax cut in this session of Congress.

Rayburn and Chairman Wilbur Mills (D-Ark) of the House Ways and Means Committee announced they will go along with President Eisenhower's stand against tax reduction.

Rayburn said the treasury, deep in red-ink financing, couldn't stand the loss of revenue.

Under the Constitution, tax legislation must originate in the House, and it is handled there by the Ways and Means Committee. Thus, a tax bill could hardly get off the ground against Mills' and Rayburn's opposition.

Only About 140 To Work At Elgin After Thursday

Only about 140 employes will be working at Elgin National Watch Co., in Lincoln after Thursday.

The plant will close operations that day as originally scheduled.

Remaining employes will complete production, aid in factory cleanup, handle certain plant maintenance assignments and help in moving, Plant Manager R. H. Brandes said.

Elgin employed some 800 persons with an annual payroll of $4 million before the shutdown was revealed last January.

At its peak in 1954 the Lincoln plant employed some 2,400 persons with an annual payroll of $9 million.

To NU In August

The 6-story building at 900 No. 16th and adjacent property is to be transferred to the University of Nebraska in August for $725,000.

Meanwhile, Ted Darby of 926 No. 39th, an Elgin employe who is heading a committee protesting the sale to the University, said his group is "still working" to find a buyer in industry.

Darby's group claims that Elgin did not do everything possible to secure an industrial offer. The group has cited the need for a replacement industry to provide jobs for unemployed Elgin workers.

Darby said, however, that his committee "has the chancellor's (Dr. Clifford M. Hardin) word that if the Nebraska Division of Resources receives a suitable or favorable offer from industry the University will consider resale of the Elgin property."

The chancellor's office said Tuesday there was no such firm agreement, that the chancellor had only said that he would "see that the information be given to the Board of Regents for its consideration" should an industrial offer appear.

Reunion Cut Short By Death; Gathering Planned 7 Years

Omaha (AP)—It took 7 years of praying, pleading, working and waiting to reunite Czech-born Mrs. Maria Hill and her brother, Joseph Jech.

Death cut the reunion short at 7 days.

On Christmas Eve, 1948, Maria, her brother and his family were gathered around the Christmas tree in their home in Paskov when it was overrun by Communists.

Joseph was arrested but escaped to Germany where he was reunited with Maria a year later. They worked to get Joseph's family out via the underground.

Maria came to Omaha to better fulfill the family wish to be "at home" again in freedom. Hope that Joseph and his family also could be brought here brightened when the family reached San Paulo, Brazil, in 1952. There they were stalled by immigration restrictions.

Last week, however, Joseph, now 59, and his wife Anna, and children Alena, 18, Sylvia 16, and Joseph Jr. 20, stepped from a plane to be greeted by Maria.

"For 7 days it was wonderful," Maria said. "My brother was so happy. He told me he had fallen in love with America and this is where he wanted to die."

Monday Joseph dropped dead of a heart attack.

Starkweather Denies He Had Murder Accomplice

Charles Starkweather denied that he had an accomplice in the Dec. 1 killing of Crest Service Station attendant Robert Colvert and charged that his attorneys "are the ones saying that," in a visit with his family Tuesday.

Starkweather also told his family that he did not speak over 50 words to his defense attorneys, T. Clement Gaughan and William F. Matschullat during their Monday visit with him, and that he is still dissatisfied with the lawyers no matter what they report.

"What burns him up is that they accuse him of things he didn't do and would like to put words in his mouth," Mrs. Guy Starkweather told The Star.

"He says he's tired of them (his attorneys) jawing at him, and he told them that if that is what they wanted to think, to go ahead and think it," Mrs. Starkweather reported on Charles' answer to his attorneys about whether he had accomplices in the Crest Service Station holdup.

Charles also accused the attorneys of trying to pinpoint the different crimes and of "looking happy" every time he said something "as though they had scored another point for Caril."

His attorneys, Gaughan and Matschullat, reiterated that the 19-year-old redhead had implicated others in the Crest Station robbery and killing, during a Monday interview, and that he was "far from silent" during their visit. "Charlie did most of the talking," Gaughan affirmed.

Gaughan said Starkweather said he was asked "if he was alone in the car" when he shot Colvert with a shotgun, and he replied yes—which was the truth. But Starkweather reportedly told his attorneys that while he was alone in his car there was another person in a second car behind his.

Police officials have strongly discounted the "accomplice" report. They said their investigation turned up no shred of evidence to support the contention.

Statehood For Alaska Faces K.O.

... In Lower House

Washington (AP) — Opposition forces Tuesday maneuvered the Alaska statehood bill into position for a possible knockout blow.

On an unrecorded teller's vote, where members pass down the aisle but do not respond by name, the house voted 144-106 to strike out the bill's enacting clause.

Statehood forces, hurt but not out, had overnight to rally their forces for a roll call vote to stave off final defeat.

The motion to strike the enacting clause, made by Rep. Walter Rogers (D-Tex), was a technical maneuver which in effect would kill the bill.

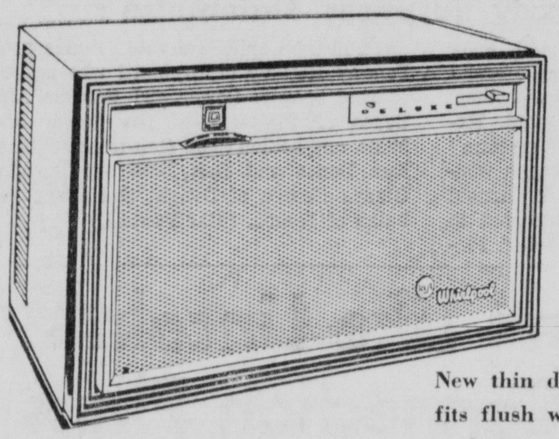

Wednesday's first roll call will come on a motion, also by Rogers, to send the bill back to the House Insular Affairs Committee where it originated. Such a move, which also would in effect kill the bill for this session, usually musters more support than a motion to strike the enacting clause.

New Doubts Cast On Summit Meet Prospects

Diplomats Eye Red Pact Talk

Moscow (AP)—Western diplomats said a Communist demand for inclusion of Warsaw Pact representatives cast new doubts on prospects of holding a summit conference.

They noted that the United States, Britain and France in the past have opposed both a Soviet suggestion for East-West parity in numbers at any meeting of the government leaders.

"Now that the Communist leaders, through the Warsaw Pact declaration, have formally demanded the inclusion of at least 3 Warsaw Pact powers, a new and serious problem has been raised in the already slow progress toward the summit," one diplomat said.

Other diplomats, both western and neutral, reacted similarly.

Little New

The group as a whole found little new in the Warsaw conference declarations, the product of meetings of government and Communist party leaders in Moscow last week.

Said one: "The communique and published statements on the meeting appear to reiterate past Kremlin positions and emphasize what (Premier) Nikita Khrushchev and others have repeatedly said—that questions of eastern Europe and German reunification will be barred from whatever summit conference is held."

The diplomats considered just a new statement of an old position even the Soviet warning that rocket bases would be set up in East Germany, Poland and Czechoslovakia if the western allies armed West Germany with atomic weapons.

Any Threat

"The Soviet Union, as spokesman for the Communist bloc, has said repeatedly that the Communist states reserve freedom of action to meet any threat from the West," one envoy commented.

There was repetition also in the Soviet bloc's call on members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to join the Warsaw Pact powers in a 25-year non-aggression pact. Western leaders term NATO a strictly defensive organization and consider such a pact unnecessary.

County OKs Aid For Study Of Convalescent Care Center Near Lincoln General Hospital

By Del Harding

The County Board Tuesday agreed to help Lincoln General Hospital finance a survey to determine the advisability of constructing a convalescent care facility adjacent to the hospital.

The convalescent facility would be used for assistance cases well enough not to require all the facilities of a hospital but not well enough to be transferred to a nursing home.

The County Board agreed to pay up to $2,000 to help the hospital finance a study of the proper size and cost of the proposed facility by a University of Minnesota hospital consulting firm, James A. Hamilton & Associates. The Board's action followed a recommendation by the County Medical Advisory Committee that a convalescent care facility be constructed.

The committee had studied but turned down proposals to house the assistance patients in some existing facility or to consider contracting the care of these patients to some private charitable organization.

County health officials have estimated that using a convalescent facility would save the county from $8 to $10 a day over the $18 a day rate paid local hospitals.

Attorney Robert Guenzel, president of the Lincoln General board, appeared before the County Board and said the hospital would pay 1-3 of the cost of the survey. He termed the construction of the convalescent care facility a "proper feature" in the improvement of local hospitals.

Guenzel read a letter from Les Wright, chairman of the County Medical Advisory Committee.

Wright said in the letter that St. Elizabeth Hospital and Bryan Memorial Hospital officials have "no objection" to the construction of the facility at Lincoln General. Providence Hospital, he said, has no resident or intern staff and therefore could not be considered in the plan.

Wright added that federal Hill-Burton funds should be available to help finance the facility (no cost estimate has been given).

Guenzel said the consulting firm can complete its survey in a short time.

Commissioner Rollin Bailey said it will be necessary for the Board at budget time in July to consider the "all possible sources of revenue" for constructing the facility. He said possible sources would be the estate inheritance tax or an increase in the mill levy.

Recreation Co-ordination

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

Three separate items in the news recently in the area of recreation have some common points of interest. County Commissioner Del Lienemann has proposed that the county's inheritance tax funds, now totaling $378,446, be used to acquire and develop a 1,000-acre recreational site south of Lincoln.

In another story, the City Council was reported in favor of a plan for development of a 31.35-acre tract in northeast Lincoln as a school site and city park. The city and school proposition would cost a total of $48,000. In another story which has been in and out of the news columns for years, there is a plan for development of a dam on Antelope Creek in southeast Lincoln. When viewed together, these propositions produce some interesting observations of considerable importance to Lincoln.

Three Related Stories

First of all, if the county intends to enter the area of recreation, would it not be wise to do this in co-operation with existing agencies now in that field? It would not seem logical for the county to begin development of a major recreational area near Lincoln strictly on its own hook.

If these county funds of which Lienemann speaks are to be used for recreational purposes, it would seem that a great deal more could be obtained for them if used in conjunction with other efforts. Why would this not be a fine place for the city-county co-operation of which we hear so much but see so little?

The city has the organization and the experience in its Park Department to get the very most out of any funds used for recreational purposes. While the county has its inheritance tax funds, it does not have the technical ability possessed by the city. Furthermore, it would be a waste of money for the county to attempt to secure this technical competence in any way whatsoever.

The city also has the physical setup necessary to carry on any major recreational development. After a project such as Lienemann's were developed, it would have to be maintained. It would be useless duplication for the county to build up a maintenance organization separate from the city's.

If the county is really interested in giving the most for its money by way of recreation to the people of the county, then it should consider development of a new area in conjunction with other governmental interests or the expansion of existing facilities. In the first case, this could be done very nicely with the city and Sanitary District 1 if the Antelope dam ever becomes a reality.

While the dam is neither a certainty or, as yet, a proven asset, its place in the current scheme of things must be recognized. If it is to be a part of the community, it could be vastly improved with the county effort outlined by Lienemann for another area.

In the case of improvement to existing facilities, Pioneers Park is certainly a county-wide attraction. It is used by all citizens of this area, not just city residents. Use of county funds in Pioneers Park would certainly not be out of line and would be much more efficient use of the money than to spend it on a new major start. The other point of passing interest is one of a somewhat ironic nature. It has been nearly 40 years since the city of Lincoln spent any money acquiring new park lands.

Of Benefit To All

And now, it is scratching hard to raise its $28,250 share of the park-school proposition in Bethany. In the face of this, comes the county with $378,446 cash in hand to spend at will plus an annual estimated income of from $100,000 to $150,000. It might be suggested by some tax-conscious individuals that the county either use its inheritance tax to reduce the property tax or abolish the former.

Eisenhower's Tax Decision

President Eisenhower took a courageous and forthright gamble with his recession when he called for holding the tax line.

He not only voiced his opposition to new reductions, but he asked Congress to prevent such June 30 reductions as are in the present law from going into effect.

The latter provide for a reduction in corporation income taxes from a maximum of 52% to 47%. They also provide for reduced excises on automobiles, liquor and cigarettes—an aggregate reduction that would drop federal revenue some $3 billion.

Many will feel that the President has made a grave mistake and if the recession deepens he will have a difficult time justifying his action. His gamble is not one of tinkering with usual economic cause and effect. It is rather with the character of the recession, itself, that is, whether it has come to the pass of requiring radical instead of routine treatment. Short of that the President has the solid arguments on his side.

The tax cut is a misnomer. Unless there is convincing evidence that the national budget is on the decline, which it is not, a so-called reduction is only a deferment, a decision to engage in deficit financing. Moreover, in depressed times tax forgiveness is more apt to develop into a profit replacement than a re-employment instrument. This phenomenon became well developed during the New Deal thirties and finally induced the counter measure of tax deductions for corporate money spent to expand plant, increase labor activity and expand sales.

Cat Licensing Proposal

We thought we had heard everything and then we saw the Humane Society proposal for licensing of cats. This led us to the conclusion that we haven't seen anything yet. It is one thing to license a cat but to take his picture—that is really going overboard.

It appeared so comical that we suspected it was some kind of joke. However, a call to Humane Society Superintendent Harold Deacon revealed that it was no joke. The idea of taking pictures would be to have a permanent record of those cats that were licensed and those that were not.

Deacon did answer one question. The idea is practical enough, he said, in that all animals are distinctive enough that they can be told apart from a picture. Those who spend any time working with animals, he said, can easily tell one cat from another.

But the next thing involves the method of identification. If a stray cat is picked up, it would be checked by way of the picture file for a license. Think of hunting through a file of some 5,000 pictures of cats to pick out a specific one that had been picked up. It seems impossible, regardless of what Deacon says.

If cats are to be licensed—and we aren't going to debate that point now—it should be done as simply as possible. If a license were required, is it not logical to assume that some 75 per cent of the cat owners will obtain a license without force? Cat owners could be required to retain proof of the licensing of their animal. In this way, stray cats and complaints could be checked through proof of licensing held by the owner.

True enough, the process might be a little lax and perhaps licensing would never hit more than 80 or 85 per cent of the cat owners but it would certainly save a lot of time and money for the Humane Society. To take a cat's picture and then try to identify cats from a massive picture file would be ridiculous.

Thirty-two Leaving Congress

Thirty-two members of Congress have declared their intention to retire at the finish of their terms this year. That is an unusually large number, and it becomes more interesting when it is learned that only 11 of them are quitting so that they can try their luck in other political fields. The latter group includes Senator Knowland, who wishes to become governor of California, and Rep. James Deveraux, hero of Wake Island, who has his eye on the Maryland governorship.

Of those who are quitting entirely, nineteen are venerable Republicans. Only one is a Democrat. Washington newsmen who have probed this heavy Republican exodus attribute it in part to two things (1) the poor prospects for Republicans running this year and (2) the taxing problems of lawmaking in a world whose complexities are exhaustive.

There is, of course, a third and important factor. There are pensions now for lawmakers of 10 or more years of service. The minimum pension is $5,000 a year with $500 additions for each further year to a maximum of $18,000 for 26 years of service. Unless a congressman was wealthy when he entered public service it is to be expected that his many years in office would unfit him for substantial earnings, or perhaps even adequate earnings, and a yearning for retirement in the absence of a pension system would have to be stifled.

In any event the public will regard this current great exodus with mixed feelings. It will remain in a quandary whether the trade for younger and more vigorous representatives will be an adequate offset for the wisdom that years bring.

And to the Republican party its heavy losses only add further to its election burdens.

No Simple Problem

In some instances the demand for enlargement of schools of higher education is well based. But it is becoming evident that there is more to the problem of advanced education than a broad program of plant enlargement. A survey of the 970 accredited four year colleges in the United States show that not more than 75 per cent of them will reach the limit on number of students next fall. Either we are not distributing our students evenly enough or we have built facilities of the wrong kind in the wrong places.

They Needed Bread We Gave Them Stone

WASHINGTON — Here are some of the backstage reasons why our good neighbors in Latin America have soured on the United States.

While Vice President Nixon was advocating sports and culture to win friends in Latin America, the State Department had dilly-dallied about sending some of our huge reserves of food to the starving population of sun-parched eastern Brazil.

The blistering drought has burned up the crops and dried up the streams of Brazil's easternmost hump, causing terrible human suffering. Poverty-stricken peasants, particularly babies, have been dying by the dozens of malnutrition. The cheapest bargain in the five sun-sizzled provinces is a funeral. It can be purchased for a few pennies.

One man in Washington who has tried to do something about this drought is Harold Cooley, hard-working chairman of the Home Agriculture Committee. Cooley has been on the telephone to the State and Agriculture Departments, calling for an emergency airlift to rush food from our surplus stocks. Food shipments might be more welcome than a visit from Nixon, he has suggested tartly.

The North Carolina congressman learned, however, that all the State Department did about the Brazilian famine was send one cable offering dried milk. Dried milk, of course, requires water to mix. Since people are scratching holes in dry river beds for water, the dried milk would be about as useless as dust in most of the stricken areas. In fact, the American offer reminded Cooley of Marie Antoinette's classic reaction to the French mobs which begged for bread: "Let them eat cake."

Cooley has called upon the Agriculture Department for a complete inventory of surplus food available for shipment to Brazil. He has also asked the State Department to cable Brazil again to clear the way for food shipments. He is also trying to bring Brazilian Ambassador Peixoto before the Agriculture Committee today (May 28) to report on Brazil's famine needs.

When State Department officials heard of Cooley's plan to call the ambassador, they cautioned it would violate diplomatic protocol. A foreign ambassador they said does not appear before a congressional committee.

"Protocol isn't worth a tinker's dam to starving people," the North Carolinian snorted.

Meanwhile, he has received reports that the Communists are using the famine to stir up Brazilians against the United States. Cooley hopes to counteract Communist propaganda with something more tangible than good will speeches.

Demo Hopefuls Preen Feathers

WASHINGTON — Eager Democrats made 1960 news last week end.

A "give 'em hell" Adlai Stevenson addressed a $100-a-plate dinner for 2,600 party workers in Chicago during which he paid marked and and repeated deference to former President Truman, who was among the guests. Their quick impression was that Stevenson might as well have included an announcement that he would run again for president next time.

In Milwaukee and Madison, Wis., Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts attracted overflow crowds and rafter-reaching applause. In the first city, the state's principal Democratic stronghold, he drew its biggest-ever Jefferson-Jackson dinner crowd for the most ample war chest the party has ever enjoyed in a mid-term election.

The result there was that representative Clement J. Zablocki of Milwaukee's Fourth district predicted that Kennedy would sweep the 1960 Wisconsin presidential primary. Zablocki offered to head the Kennedy slate of delegates. Kennedy didn't quite say yes.

Much more of this type of reaction and the young senator will be committed to primary campaigning. He will meet some tough pace-setters of greater experience and noted vigor.

Almost simultaneously, the Minnesota Democrat-Farmer-Labor convention officially endorsed Senator Hubert H. Humphrey for the presidency in 1960. In a gesture of extreme significance, the convention also endorsed a Catholic, Representative Eugene McCarthy, as a candidate against the incumbent Republican, Senator Edward J. Thye.

McCarthy was hotly opposed by Eugenie Anderson, former Truman ambassador to Denmark. At almost the last minute, Gov. Orville L. Freeman backed Mrs. Anderson. Humphrey carefully remained neutral.

McCarthy is an effective and attractive young legislator; he has a good chance against Thye. But whether or not McCarthy prevails in that race, he and his friends must necessarily back Humphrey should the senator decide—as undoubtedly he will — to enter Wisconsin against Kennedy.

☆ ☆ ☆

Another primary pace-setter still waiting in the wings is Governor G. Mennen Williams of Michigan, an iron man on the circuit and a prime favorite of labor, which has so important a voice in Wisconsin Democratic politics.

No Democrat contested Wisconsin against Senator Estes Kefauver in 1956. In 1960, it may become the make-or-break primary for numerous hopefuls.

One figure who will not be in Wisconsin's or any other primary is Stevenson. He has faced the fact that his 1956 campaign was less effective than his 1952 effort. He blames it largely on the drain of time, money and ideas which the hard-fought primaries cost him.

Stevenson's main chance, it now seems, will depend on his receiving, as he did in 1952 from his party and its leader, one clear call.

MARQUIS CHILDS

West Ponders Resurgent De Gaulle

Paris—It is time to ask what the return of General Charles De Gaulle to power would mean for France and for the West.

Chas. De Gaulle

No one can say with finality, since the general means so many things to so many different people. But there are clear indications of what he can and cannot do when confronted with the personal responsibility for solving problems long aggravated.

First, it is generally agreed here that if the war in Algeria must be ended by negotiation with the national front of liberation—the organization of the rebellious Moslem fellagahs that constitutes in all but name a government in exile—then neither De Gaulle nor anyone else can bring it to an end.

The feelings of the French settlers and the army in Algeria go too deep for any deal with the fellagah front. What is more, the front has set as its price for settlement the independence of Algeria—in a confederation with France, Tunisia and Morocco perhaps, but independence nevertheless.

The only question then is whether De Gaulle, at the head of the government with the full backing of the army, could solve the Algerian riddle by "integration." Integration is being loudly shouted by the generals in Algiers and by their political ally, Jacques Soustelle, the ardent De Gaulle supporter who escaped from police surveillance in Paris and made his way to the seceded colony. But what the secessionists mean by integration and whether the leaders of the Moslems would accept it is far from clear.

If it means the Moslems would have the same rights of citizenship as the French settlers, they would have the power to elect some 130 deputies to the Assembly in Paris. With a birthrate spiraling upward several times as fast as that of the settlers, they would get the same social services at an enormous cost to France. This is a "solution" which the settlers have in the past violently rejected.

While Moslems have come out of the casbah in Algiers to demonstrate for De Gaulle and integration, according to censored news dispatches, the best guess in Paris is that these demonstrations are contrived by the secession leaders for their own propaganda purposes. It would be most unwise in the view of knowledgeable observers to put confidence in integration as a way to resolve the Algerian conflict.

General De Gaulle in power would have to find a means not now visible to enable a million and one half Europeans to live in peace with 8 to 9 million Moslems. And with each week that passes without a settlement the Moslem leaders of the liberation front grow more intransigent and demanding.

Involved, too, is the precarious relationship with Tunisia and Morocco, which means that the whole North African shore of the Mediterranean and the connection of the West with the Moslem world is at stake.

☆ ☆ ☆

De Gaulle has aroused hopes in the world, with Tunisia's Habib Bourguiba only recently stating his conviction that the general could bring an end to the Algerian conflict. But the path is far from clear and the likelihood is for more bloodshed in a war that cannot be won.

What of De Gaulle in the larger context of the North Atlantic Alliance and the arrangements concluded in recent months for European economic collaboration.

De Gaulle's followers are now saying—and they are certainly right — that he would never take France out of the alliance. But his concept of the alliance is something quite different from the one developed among the allies in recent years—that it must be more than a military alliance, that it must encompass political and economic collaboration.

De Gaulle sees the alliance solely as a military coalition in which France is a strong and independent power. He is said to have decided reservations about many aspects of NATO, including the fact that a German general, Hans Speidel, as commander of the ground forces is commander of French troops.

De Gaulle's followers are saying the general is not opposed to the European common market and Euratom for a common atomic development.

Always The Mockers

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Name-calling of psychiatrists and psychologists involved in the Starkweather trial by "N. H." and others does a great disservice to people really interested in improving the mental health of the community.

The writer concedes that if Starkweather had been given proper interest and psychiatric help years ago, he wouldn't have the tragic record he does now, but in his case, a qualified group of people selected by democratic process decided that a menace to society cannot be tolerated further.

Of course we want to prevent similar happenings in the future, but pampering of those whose personalities are beyond beneficial modification stages can only result in infuriating the majority of society, and thereby harming efforts to help those still young enough in mind and flexibility to be helped by mental health programs.

Psychiatrists and psychologists are generally accepted leaders in the field of improving mental health, and it is ridiculous to negate efforts of them and other valued people with interests in the field merely because at times they disagree among themselves. Who can point to a field of endeavor where there is not occasional dispute?

People laughed for a long time at Louis Pasteur, Thomas Edison, Billy Mitchell, Copernicus, and even Christianity, just to mention a few.

Eventually, however, despite mockers and scoffers, continued effort will succeed in almost any field.

A Lack Of Faith

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: This morning I visited Charles at the prison. He is not feeling very good, not nearly the same as last week. I visited a young man who was not very cheerful, not about the fate awaiting him but about the injustice he thinks has been bestowed upon him.

He says he was tried on the whole mess and he blames his attorneys for this (the reading of statements not pertaining to the case when he was being tried on the Jensen case). He has not had faith in these men from the beginning and does not now, as I can see it. This distrust was revealed on the witness stand and by a letter I received from him on April 15.

In the 42 days that had lapsed from the day they were appointed to the day he wrote me, the attorneys had been out to see him only six times. When they did come out, they wanted him to pinpoint everything Caril Fugate did and every little detail. By reading all the statements, he felt it was for the benefit of someone else besides the court.

The attorney asked the jury that the reading of Charles' statements of these crimes should have no effect on their decision, although once the statements were read, it would be quite difficult to erase such a picture of crime from one's mind.

To Charles, it seemed that he was being convicted for all the crimes that were brought out in court, and it seemed that the attorneys would like to have it this way. I am inclined to believe this. When permission was asked of the defense attorneys to let the district attorney come into prison to get a statement from Charles to lessen the counts against him, the defense attorneys would hear nothing of it. It seemed then that they wanted to dump the whole thing into Charles' lap.

Who was protecting whom?

I know it looks as though I am ungrateful to the men who were appointed to defend Charles, but I can't help how the boy feels.

Ghost Democracy

Omaha, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The governor said: "There is available to each candidate for office every type of news and advertising service equipped to reach the entire state." This was in reply to a challenge from Mr. Brooks to a debate, and he added that "I will use this method of 'reaching' the people."

This method is foreign to the America that we have known. This is decadence and an unhappy departure from our traditional electioneering. This is ghost democracy. This is becoming a travesty when compared with the thrilling bannered campaigns to elect the Jacksons, Lincolns and McKinleys, when the eager populace turned to the outdoors to reiterate the basic principles of freedom and hurl to and fro the points at stake. It is becoming known that all a candidate has to do to get elected in some places is to fork up a major payment to a high-powered agent and then if the opposition still wiggles a bit, add the precise amount needed to finish the job.

But I have faith. The American people are clever in their self-chosen ways. When they catch on to what is being done to them, they will mark the ballots the opposite way to that which they were supposed to do. They will trample this sort of procedure as they would a creeping, slinky creature in the grass. They will lustily restore our birthright. They will have it that open discussion among the populace comes to the fore again and that "coin-slot" methods are kicked back and out.

An Early Start

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Today's teen-agers in great measure reflect the problems, weaknesses, and confusions of the adult population. The adolescent is growing up today in a climate that does not stress responsibility and consequently does not respect authority.

Children are not helped by letting them grow up as they wish. One must supply reasonable but firm discipline at the times and places where it is needed. And start early in life, not when the child is old enough to walk. By doing so, you will help him avoid many painful and irreparable mistakes. And some of his mistakes could have serious consequences.

Senate Kills Plan To Broaden Jobless Relief Bill

Washington (AP) — The Senate turned down Tuesday a plan to broaden and increase the benefits contained in an unemployment relief bill passed by the House May 1.

It voted 63-21 against a substitute measure sponsored by Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and 16 other Democrats.

The rollcall indicated the Senate would go along with the House legislation, which would authorize federal loans to permit the states to extend by as much as 50% the number of weeks insured workers could receive unemployment benefits.

This extension would mean an extra 13 weeks in most states, provided they participated in the program.

With Majority

Washington (AP) — Sens. Curtis and Hruska of Nebraska voted with the majority when the Senate rejected a substitute amendment by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill) to broaden a temporary jobless pay bill by raising standards on a permanent basis.

Emergency

Administration leaders have urged the Senate to accept the House bill as an emergency anti-recession measure and send it directly to President Eisenhower. Any changes in the legislation would mean it would have to go back to the House.

Kennedy called it a "do-nothing" bill. His substitute would have provided minimum unemployment benefits equal to half a workers's weekly wage, benefit payments for at least 39 weeks and extension of coverage to all establishments with one or more employes.

Seventeen Democrats and 3 Republicans voted with Kennedy. They were opposed by 40 Republicans and 23 Democrats.

Kennedy argued that if Congress failed to act now on long range improvement of the unemployment compensation system it might never get as good an opportunity

Weeks Of Delay

But Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich) said adoption of any major amendment would probably cause weeks of delay and stir up a controversy which might kill the bill.

"Our main job is to act as quickly as possibly to get checks into the hands of the unemployed who have exhausted their benefits," Potter told the Senate.

The House bill provides that if the participating states have not repaid their federal loans by 1963 they may raise the money by increasing the payroll tax on employers.

HOW TO BEAT CHARITY FAKES

Charity racketeers pocket about three percent of the total contributions to philanthropy. The $150,000,000 a year that fake charity promoters get could:

Get the Red Cross out of its financial crisis, put the heart, cancer and polio drives over the top, and provide hundreds of summer camps for underprivileged children.

No one should stop giving to charity just because some purported "charities" are unworthy. If you give intelligently, none of your money will be wasted.

Over Two-Thirds Of Corn Planted; Bumper Wheat Harvest Predicted

. . . Surface Moisture Dry In North And East Areas

Clear weather last week helped Nebraska farmers get land prepared and late crops planted, government crop observers reported Tuesday.

More than two-thirds of the corn acreage had been planted by the week end, according to the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics.

In the eastern third of the state about four-fifths of the corn was in the ground, with planting better than half finished in southwest and south central counties.

Farmers also got a start on sorghum and soybean planting and by the week end nearly 10% of these crops was planted.

Some early corn fields are up to good stands but surface soil is dry in the north and east.

Small grain crops made good progress last week but some northern counties need rains to replenish surface soil moisture, the division's weekly crop report said.

Winter wheat is heading out in southern Nebraska. Some lodging is reported but prospects are for a bumper harvest.

Winter barley looks promising and spring barley and oats had done well.

First cuttings of alfalfa for the dehydrators and for hay were under way in several places although harvest was not general.

Alfalfa yield prospects are promising but other hay crops and pastures still are behind usual development to this date.

Sugar beet thinning operations are under way in the west and dry bean planting is about to begin.

Top USDA Service Awards Presented To 3 Nebraskans

Mrs. Mahr Garl

Washington — Three Nebraskans were among 182 employes of the U.S. Department of Agriculture honored Tuesday by that agency for achievement and years of service.

Superior service awards went to these Nebraskans, all of Lincoln:

J. Russell Garl of Agricultural Research Service for proficiency in field and laboratory work in the alfalfa breeding program.

Thelma M. Mahr of the Agricultural Marketing Service for skill in directing clerical operations in the state statistician's office.

Elton Lux of the University of Nebraska Extension Service for leadership in improvement of extension programs.

The awards were presented by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson in ceremonies on the Washington Monument Grounds.

Garl was presented the award for some 29 years of service in a co-operative program between the University of Nebraska's Department of Agronomy and the USDA. A native of Cedar Rapids, Ia., Garl moved to Lincoln with his family as a child.

Mrs. Mahr, a native of Waverly, joined the Agricultural Marketing Service in 1945 and was placed in charge of the clerical operations of the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics in 1949.

Lux, who has been employed by the Agricultural Extension Service for some 35 years, currently is state leader of finance and personnel.

Waugh Declares South American Tour 'Success'

Washington (AP)—Sam Waugh, head of the Export-Import Bank, Tuesday termed Vice President Nixon's recent South American trip "a great success despite the indignities and insults suffered in the first degree."

Waugh, a native of Lincoln, Neb., who also made the tour, gave a report on the incidents at the weekly breakfast of Nebraska's members of Congress.

He said the 8-country tour was a success because it brought attention to problems confronted in South America.

Other guests at the breakfast included Emil Reutzel Jr., of the Federal Civil Defense Administration from Neligh, Neb.; Lou Eby, Lincoln; Otto and Mrs. Otto Kotouc Jr., and family of Humboldt.

Gunmen Burn Second Plush Chicago Roadhouse

TERRORISM CAMPAIGN RENEWED

Chicago (UPI)—Masked gunmen burned the second plush Chicago area roadhouse in 2 weeks Tuesday in an apparent crime syndicate campaign to fight the Senate Rackets Committee with terrorism.

The 2 hoodlums, both wearing black cloth masks in Wild West style and carrying revolvers, forced the 2 owners of the Villa La Maine restaurant into separate washrooms and then doused the roadhouse with gasoline-soaked paper towels.

Make Their Escape

The owners, Chris Savas, 43, and his brother, George, 41, were left to escape alone from the blazing building in suburban Skokie.

The arsonists' descriptions matched those of 2 gunmen who held 9 employes prisoner May 13 while they methodically doused Allgauer's Fireside Lounge in nearby Lincolnwood with gasoline and set it ablaze.

Senate Rackets Committee investigators, who had already entered the Allgauer case, joined Chicago and suburban police in search of the Skokie arsonists.

Direct Link Seen

The million-dollar Allgauer fire appeared to have a direct link with the pending racket committee investigation of alleged tieups between the crime syndicate and Chicago area labor unions. Allgauer had been questioned previously by committee investigators and had talked freely, police said.

The Savas brothers, in contrast, had not been questioned by committee representatives. They asserted they had no labor troubles, and knew of no motive for the arson.

Chicago police, however, said the second fire appeared to be part of a pattern to scare Chicago restaurant owners out of talking to the rackets committee agents.

Council Of Churches Elects

At the annual meeting of the Lincoln Council of Churches Tuesday night at Christ Methodist Church new officers for the year were elected and introduced. Exchanging congratulations are Leroy T. Laase, chairman of the social betterment division, Howard Stewart, chairman of the finance division, the Rev. Merrill Willis, chairman of the Christian fellowship division, Howard Ottoson, president, and the Rev. Robert H. Laird, chairman of the Christian education division. (Star Staff Photo)

Dr. Ottoson Named To Head Lincoln Council Of Churches

Election of a new set of officers and adoption of a $7,711.28 budget were the main items of business at the annual meeting of the Lincoln Council of Churches at Christ Methodist Church Tuesday night.

New president is Dr. Howard Ottoson who is moderator of the congregation of Second Baptist Church. He is an associate professor of agricultural economics at the University of Nebraska.

The financial report showed $3,774.80 received from member churches against an anticipated receipt of $5,136.60. The reports showed a deficit for the last fiscal year of $633.36 which represents unpaid salaries to Council staff members.

Other officers elected were vice presidents Mrs. Elden Hitz, Nancy Fry and Dr. F. A. Roblee; recording secretary, Dr. Carl Davidson; Christian fellowship chairman, the Rev. Merrill Willis; Christian education chairman, the Robert Laird; social betterment chairman, Dr. Leroy Laase; finance chairman, Howard I. Stewart; and representatives at large, Don Gerhard, Mrs. Aubrey Givens and the Rev. Thomas C. Dick.

Anticipated receipts for 1958-59 are $5,280.80 or 20 cents from each of the 26,404 members of member churches.

Ottoson will replace the Rev. Thomas C. Dick.

The Rev. Carl A. Burkhardt, Jr., pastor of Bethany Church of Christ gave a short address at the dinner meeting of the Council.

Schools To Pay $16,500 For Portion Of School Site

The Lincoln Schools will pay $16,500 for 1.18 acres of land as part of land acquisition for the proposed Robin Mickle Junior High School at 67th and Walker.

The land, to be purchased from Violet and Walter Zentz, will be traded to the city for 2.5 acres of park land which will be part of the proposed junior high school site. The city will also receive $3,250 from the Lincoln Public Schools in the transfer.

The land acquisition approved Tuesday by the Lincoln School Board is part of a $48,000 project by the city and the Lincoln schools to acquire over 30 acres for the $1.5 million school building and a 28-acre park and playground planned by the city. Construction of the new junior high is expected to be started by early 1959.

Still under negotiation is city purchase of 11.3 acres of land from Arthur Limbeck of 2632 No. 67th.

Present for the Tuesday School Board vote were President Robert Ammon, Dr. Steven Watkins, schools superintendent and board secretary, Mrs. Roscoe Hill, Robert Venner, Warren Parker and Glenn Yaussi. Absent was Dr. Paul Bancroft.

Natural Gas Firms Plead Not Guilty

Milwaukee (AP) — Three major midwestern natural gas companies and their top officers pleaded innocent in U.S. District Court Tuesday to charges of violating federal antitrust laws.

Indictments were returned by a grand jury last month naming the American Natural Gas Co., Detroit, and its president, Ralph T. McElvenny; The Northern Natural Gas Co., of Omaha and President John F. Merriam, and the People's Gas Light & Coke Co. of Chicago and its former board chairman, James F. Oates Jr., of New York.

Counsel for Oates told the court the defendants reserved the right to file motions within 30 days, and would ask bills of particulars relating to the court's jurisdiction and other matters.

The indictment charges that the firms conspired to block a competitor's importation of Canadian natural gas into the Midwest.

American is the parent firm of the Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Co., and the Milwaukee Gas Light Co.

Expense Reports

Primary election campaign expense reports reported at the Secretary of State's office Tuesday included expenditures of $353 listed by John P. Dalton, Republican candidate for the Second Congressional District post. Candidates for 3 legislative posts also filed their expenses which included: Joseph G. Strawn, 3rd Dist., $110; Carl J. Buda, 7th Dist., $161, and Peter H. Claussen, 16th Dist., $86.

An economist, he has been in the German foreign or military service since he earned his doctorate in political science in 1926. Until his appointment to the consulate 18 months ago, von Lupin was attached to the German Foreign Office in Bonn in the commercial policy division.

'State Visit'

Though his visit to Lincoln is purely on matters of state, von Lupin's chief interest is the West German economy and especially the foreign trade balance. He pointed out that West Germany is searching for way to balance the $350 million unfavorable balance between it and the United States.

But on the whole, he said, West Germany has reached a favorable balance of trade. In April the balance was $140 million for West Germany.

One point of his Nebraska visit that did cause him to take heart in the economic situation was the discovery that German beer is stocked in local bars.

The balance of trade, he said, "is proof there is no world wide recession. We thought we were having one last winter," Von Lupin said, "because there was a lot of unemployment."

Full Employment

West Germany now has full employment, he said, and is able to absorb reasonably well the 715 refugees a day that are streaming into West Germany from Russian zones.

There is still a great deal of rebuilding to be done, von Lupin said. Roads, schools, theaters are waiting to be rebuilt and an additional 300,000 housing units are needed, he said.

For the romanticists, von Lupin found it hard to access the value of a title in modern Germany, but he admitted being a baron still has its advantages.

'Depression'

London (UPI) — A BBC announcer gave a report of rainy, cold and windy weather over southeast England.

He said it was due to "a depression over France."

Why is Snow Crop orange juice called "HOME-SQUEEZED" STYLE?

Snow Crop is known as "home-squeezed" style because it's the one frozen orange juice that retains the real fruit particles of the whole orange—doesn't strain them out as other frozen juices do. Snow Crop is so different, you can actually see the fruit particles floating in your glass! Snow Crop's flavor is different, too. It always tastes like it was just squeezed in your own kitchen minutes ago—it's never thin, never watery like ordinary juices. And Snow Crop is every bit as good for you as it tastes. It's pure juice from tree-ripened oranges, chock-full of strength-giving, body-building Vitamin C and other important food benefits essential to your daily diet. It's even recommended for babies! Try Snow Crop—the "home-squeezed" style orange juice—today...and see for yourself why it's "top of the crop"! The finest quality juice you can serve.

Nixon Changed Tactics—Rayburn

Washington (AP) — House speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) predicted that Vice President Nixon will never again wage the type of cruel campaign he said Nixon undertook 4 years ago.

At the same time, Rayburn forecast election of a Democratic majority in Congress for the foreseeable future.

The House leader got into politics when questioned at a National Press Club luncheon.

He was asked whether his opinion of Nixon had changed in any way since 1956.

Rayburn replied that he was personally friendly with Nixon but "I just don't like cruel people." And in the 1954 congressional campaign Nixon engaged in cruel tactics, he said.

Rayburn did not specify what Nixon actions he objected to, but Democrats were stung by Nixon's references in 1954 to security risks in government. The GOP claim was that the Eisenhower administration was ridding the government of security risks who had been hired under the Democrats.

Rayburn said "I think the medicine he (Nixon) has taken since then has effected a cure on him, and I don't think he'll make that kind of campaign again."

As for Democratic presidential prospects, Rayburn said the party has many good young men of White House potential but he wouldn't name a specific one now. He ruled himself out, saying being House speaker is his highest ambition and "at my age it would be folly" to try for the presidency.

The speaker, who is third in line for the White House behind the President and Vice President, said he prays for President Eisenhower's health and would pray for Nixon's too if Eisenhower died and Nixon succeeded to the presidency.

FHA Shuts Down Home Loan Insurance Business

House Building Faces 30-Day Stall–Capehart

Washington (AP) — The Federal Housing Administration shut down its home loan insurance business because it has run out of authority to insure housing loans —until Congress acts to increase it.

At about the same time FHA Commissioner Norman Mason announced this, Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind) told the Senate that unless Congress votes more authority quickly the home building industry faces a 30-day shutdown.

"Somebody is playing politics in this," Capehart shouted on the Senate floor. He said he and Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala) had tried unsuccessfully last week and this week to get a Senate vote on a 4 billion dollar increase for FHA.

Capehart directed his remarks at Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. Johnson and the Democratic Policy Committee control legislation coming before the Senate.

General Bill

Johnson quietly replied that the FHA increase would be considered along with a general housing bill which will reach the Senate shortly.

"You can understand who is playing politics in this," Johnson told Capehart.

The Senate was nearing a vote on a bill to extend jobless pay benefits and Capehart declared:

"We are asked to pass a bill to pay people who have no jobs and yet we do nothing on a bill that would help people keep their jobs."

Separate

Capehart pointed out that the Senate Banking Committee had unanimously approved the 4 billions of additional FHA insurance May 19 as separate legislation.

If this is tied up to omnibus housing legislation, Capehart said it may be delayed for 30 days or longer.

"There is no excuse in the world for not acting on this," he continued." No one opposes it."

Capehart said the omnibus housing bill contains more than 80 pages and many controversial features.

Mason said he wired the agency's 75 field offices to discontinue making commitments to insure mortgages.

Mexican Labor Being Hired In State Beet Field

Mexican nationals are being brought in to assist in the thinning of sugar beets in Nebraska, the State Labor Department's Division of Employment Security reported Tuesday. The move results from a shortage of domestic workers, the agency said.

Sugar beet thinning is getting under way in all areas.

Elsewhere, the shortage of regular farm and ranch workers has been relieved in part by the availability of high school and college youth. But substantial worker shortages still are reported at Grand Island, Kearney, McCook and Norfolk, the division said.

Clamps Down

Colombo, Ceylon (AP) — Ceylon's Army and Navy clamped down a state of emergency throughout the island to end Sinhalese-Tamil language riots.

A government spokesman said the Army and Navy had taken vigorous measure to end the rioting and that the situation is under control. The government banned all assemblies of more than 50 persons.

State Records 4 Polio Cases

Nebraska's clean record of 5 consecutive weeks without polio was broken as 4 cases were registered throughout the state during the past week, according to the State Health Department.

The new cases bring the year's total to 6, compared with 28 at this time last year.

Of the current cases, 2 were reported from Greeley County, and one each from Kimball, and Scotts Bluff County.

One rabies case, involving a coon, was reported from Grand Island, bringing the year's total animal rabies cases load to 9, compared with 17 at this time last year.

Parkman Dies

Boston (UPI) — Henry Parkman Jr., 64, former assistant U.S. high commissioner for Germany, died at Massachusetts General Hospital after a heart attack.

At the time of his death, Parkman was a civilian aide to the Secretary of the Army and had entertained Army Secretary Wilber H. Brucker in Boston several days ago.

Private Presley Leaving In Fall For Germany

Ft. Hood, Tex. (AP) — Private Elvis Presley will leave here shortly after Sept. 20 for military duty in Germany.

That was the official word Tuesday from this central Texas fort which trains tank crewmen and teams.

Presley finishes basic training Saturday and will go into advanced training at Ft. Hood after a 2-week leave.

After 8 weeks of advanced training as a tank crewman he will undergo 6 weeks of basic unit training. This creates the tank team.

Sept. 20 he will be sent to New York to board ship for Germany along with what the Army calls a "packet" of other soldiers trained as a team.

Peron Propaganda

Tucuman, Argentina (AP) — Provincial officials are seeking a clandestine radio that began broadcasting propaganda this week in behalf of ex-Dictator Juan D. Peron. He is living in exile in the Dominican Republic.

Another 1-Party Deal

Budapest (AP) — The Albanian news agency ATA reports in a dispatch distributed here by the Hungarian MTI agency that election campaign meetings are being held this week throughout Red-ruled Albania. The typical one-party elections will be next Sunday.

Another Docker Ban

Margate, South Africa (AP)— Mayor Robert Barton and his publicity people are at odds over Britain's Sir Bernard and Lady Docker. They were barred from the Monocan and French Riviera after Lady Docker tore up a Monocan flag in a fit of anger. The city press agentry then invited the Dockers here to judge a beauty contest. Mayor Barton stopped it saying they wouldn't bring the city the right sort of publicity.

Bar Planned

Washington (AP) — Atty. Gen. Rogers said he will oppose any effort by Pedro Estrada, exiled former Venezuelan police chief, to return to this country.

Rogers told a news conference he does not know if Estrada, who is currently in Europe, wants to get back into the United States. But he said: "If Estrada attempts to come back, we will use our best efforts to keep him out."

During the vacation Mrs. Lyberis and Mrs. Grimes traveled to Ft. Worth, Tex., to visit other family members.

It's our pleasure this morning to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Dean B. Nelson to the ranks of Indian Village residents. The Nelson couple moved into their new home at 1535 Sioux the latter part of April.

Evening Wedding

White gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the chancel of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church at Wahoo on Saturday evening, May 24, for the wedding of Miss Annette Justine Houfek, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Houfek of Wahoo, and Howard H. Augenstine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Augenstine of Ashley, O.

Mrs. Murvin Barry of Lincoln, as the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Warner Houfek, Wahoo, and Miss Barbara Hanson, Lincoln, wore identical ballerina frocks of white organdy.

Serving as best man was John Whiteside of Glydon, Md., and the ushers were Dr. Warner Houfek, Wahoo, and Dave Esty, Fitchfield, Mass.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white silk organza over taffeta. Appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace traced with tiny pearls and paillettes framed the Sabrina neckline of the basque, which was designed with full, shephardess sleeves, and the very full skirt ended in a chapel train.

Following a wedding trip to Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Augenstine will reside at 511 So. 14th in Lincoln, where the bridegroom is attending the University of Nebraska. Mrs. Augenstine is a former student at Luther College, Wahoo and the University of Nebraska.

The News Around Town

—The Bassinet Club in Imperial sends us news this morning—It has to do with the arrival of a son to Mr. and Mrs. William Weir on Monday, May 26. Mrs. Weir is the former Nancy Chamberlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Chamberlin—and Alpha Phi at Nebraska. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weir.

Mrs. Weir, accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, T.Sgt. and Mrs. Ed Weir and his family, just back from England, will leave today for Imperial from where Sgt. and Mrs. Weir and their children will go on to Sgt. Weir's new assignment at Travis Air Force Base near San Francisco.

Mrs. Weir plans to return home on Saturday and accompanying her will be her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Pickett of Cheyenne, Wyo., who will join her in Imperial. Mr. and Mrs. Pickett (the former Helen Weir) plan a two weeks stay in Lincoln.

We hear, also, that Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin will be leaving for Imperial on Friday to extend a personal greeting to their grandson.

* * *

—a week from Sunday is June 8—commencement day at Smith College where Miss Ann Stebbins of Lincoln will be among the graduates. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stebbins, of course will be on hand for the ceremonies, and perhaps arrive at Northampton and Smith in time for some of the pre-commencement activities.

* * *

—mention of the feminine college set reminds us that Miss Sharon Smith, who is completing her freshman year at Monticello College, Alton, Ill., has been elected president of the Hobby Horse Club. The Hobby Horse Club plans and stages the annual Monticello College Horse Show. Miss Smith is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Smith Jr.

* * *

—but back to events of June 8—We hear that Miss Sarah Colby is to be hostess at a dessert supper at her home on that particular Sunday evening when she honors June bride-elect, Miss Sharon Ellsworth. Following the supper Miss Ellsworth will be presented with a miscellaneous shower.

* * *

—last Sunday Miss Ellsworth was an honoree when Mrs. W. J. Turner, Mrs. Fred Morgan, Mrs. Dorothy McIntyre and their daughters, Miss Sherry Turner, Miss Susan Morgan and Miss Ann McIntyre, were hostesses at a mother-daughter coffee and a pottery shower at the home of Mrs. Turner. The 17 guests were all members of a Girl Scout Troop to which the bride-elect also belonged.

Another recent party for Miss Ellsworth was the luncheon for which Mrs. Flavel Wright was hostess at her home on Saturday, May 24. The guest list of 16 included Kappa Alpha Theta sisters of the bride-elect who was presented with a kitchen shower.

Bride On Tuesday

MRS. ARNOLD J. KOUMA

At a 9 o'clock morning service on Tuesday, May 27, Miss Margaret Benes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Benes, became the bride of Arnold J. Kouma of Weston, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kouma. White Majestic daisies and pink gladioli appointed the altar of St. Mary's Cathedral for the ceremony, which was solemnized by the Rev. John Flynn.

Mrs. Daniel J. Benes as the matron of honor, and Miss Gladyce Kouma of Dwight, the bridesmaid, were frocked alike in pastel pink lace fashioned in the waltz length, and they carried nosegays of white daisies. The flower girl was Miss Patricia Ann Benes of Plattsmouth, and Thomas Hottovy, Dwight, carried the rings.

Serving as best man was Daniel J. Benes, and seating the guests were Larry Sabatka of Wahoo, Paul J. Benes and Sp. 2c George W. Kouma.

The bride wore for her wedding a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The Sabrina neckline of the long-sleeved bodice of lace was patterned with iridescent sequins, which were repeated on lace appliques to trim the full skirt of alternate panels of lace and tulle. Her veil of illusion was held by a pearl coronet, and she carried an arm bouquet of white calla lilies.

Upon their return from a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Kouma will reside on a farm near Weston.

A former student at the University of Nebraska, the bride has been teaching in Lancaster County Schools. Mr. Kouma is a veteran of the Armed Forces.

Dear Abby . . .

Chalk It Off

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I had a coffee table in my house and my sister-in-law admired it and admired it and admired it. I finally took the hint and gave it to her. Then she turned around and SOLD it to her sister. I don't care about the few dollars, but I think this was a cheap trick. I want to buy it back from her sister, but my husband says to forget the whole thing. Should I?

BOILING OVER

DEAR BOILING: Your sister-in-law used extremely poor judgment. If I were you I would forget it and charge it to experience.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: The man who thinks he gives his teen-aged son an allowance that is "MORE THAN PLENTY" sounds just like my father. Some fathers forget that times have changed since they were teen-agers. If a boy wants to take a girl to the movie and buy her a hamburger and a malt afterwards, he can't do it on fifty cents like his old man did. Will you please remind MY father and the fathers of other teen-aged boys that the cost of living has gone up.

LIVING MODERN

DEAR LIVING: The father who is paying the grocer, the butcher, the dentist, the doctor, the insurance man and the tax people doesn't need ME to remind him that the cost of living has gone up.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a young woman who works for my husband. She is 26 years old and has already been through two husbands. She drives her own car to work all right, but my husband has to follow her home in his car after work to be sure she gets home safely. She invites him in for a cup of tea (he has ulcers so I don't have to worry about it being anything else) afterwards. Sometimes it is seven-thirty before he gets home for dinner. Do I have to put up with this?

Bringing Up Baby®

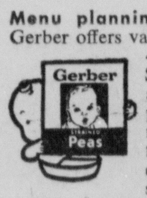

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

A column-reading mother writes: "I was surprised to find that I learned more about what was best for baby by the little mistakes I made. After all, I didn't know she would prefer being bathed, fed or held another way until I did it the wrong way. Interesting. The 'trial and error' system obviously has real educational value."

Variety review. Doctors add new foods to baby's menu at an early age, partly for increased nutritive benefits, but also because early acceptance of variety makes for future good eating habits.

Menu planning made easy. Gerber offers variety galore—over 45 good-tasting Strained Foods—all notable for appetizing colors and naturally good flavors. Carefully cooked in the absence of air for maximum retention of wholesome food values—delicately seasoned to suit the awakening taste buds of tykes. Fruits, vegetables, meats, soups, High Meat Dinners, egg yolks and desserts make up the happy list.

Straight talk. Sure it's a temptation to gurgle and coo at baby in his own kind of baby talk. But try not to overdo it. Your day-by-day way of speaking to baby plays an important part in the proper development of speech later. And remember to talk a lot. If you're silent most of the time, baby won't have much incentive to learn.

Baby strikes it rich when you serve Gerber Strained Meats. That's because they're rich in the complete proteins baby needs for growth, strength and the development of all body structures. Made from selected, inspected Armour cuts, these quality meats are specially processed for high retention of nutrients. 8 succulent choices—all pure meat. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan. Presbyterian Branches Merged Pittsburgh (AP)—A handful of churches Tuesday staged a last-ditch revolt against the union of two long-separated families of Presbyterians. But it was roundly defeated.

The move came at a final assembly of the United Presbyterian Church. It merges Wednesday with the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

Delegates overwhelmingly turned down a maneuver that would have given individual congregations a go ahead to walk out of the union—and take buildings and other church assets with them.

The 2 denominations are forming a consolidated church of more than 3 million members, fourth largest in U.S. Protestantism.

"Together we will produce a new church with greater vision, increased spiritual power and larger opportunities of service . . .", said the Rev. Dr. Harold R. Martin of Pittsburgh, moderator of the U.S.A. church.

The union will heal a split in Presbyterianism dating back more than 200 years.

The Rev. Forest E. Bates of Telluride, Colo., a U.P. pastor, characterized the opposition faction in his church as "ultraconservatives."

"The smaller group naturally tends to feel defensive, that it's being swallowed up," he said. "It's a psychological truism." (The U.S.A. church has 2,791,547 members compared to 311,025 in the U.P. church.)

Colorful ceremonies Wednesday will bring the 2 groups together, forming a church exceeded in size among American Protestants only by the Methodists, Southern Baptists, and National Baptist Convention (a Negro Baptist body).

An original 3-way union plan included the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. (Southern), but it dropped out of the procedure after failing to turn up a required three-fourths plurality favoring it.

'Hopper Lookout Warning Issued

The state agriculture department Tuesday issued a special warning for Nebraska farmers to be on the lookout for grasshoppers.

The hoppers are emerging in grassy areas around fence rows, waterways, and pasture lands, the department said.

They will feed in the hatching areas for several weeks before spreading to feed throughout the farm.

C. J. Walstrom, state entomologist, advised early spraying for the hoppers before they have a chance to move out of the hatching areas.

Walstrom recommended for fence rows and waterways either dieldrin, texaphene or aldrin.

Heptachlor was advised for pasture lands.

Only 7 days, he said, need elapse before cattle can be turned out to graze on grass sprayed with heptachlor, wheras 30 days should elapse after dieldrin, 40 days after texaphene, and 21 days after aldrin.

Slick-Fielding Sky Sox Stop Chiefs' Winning Streak

Lincoln Topples By 7-1

By Don Bryant

The slick-fielding, solid-hitting Colorado Springs Sky Sox halted the Lincoln Chiefs victory express Monday night, whacking the Sherman Fielders, 7-1, to even the series at a game apiece.

In the process, the Sky Sox snapped the Chiefs' win string at 5 and handed Leon Hurst his first loss of the season.

Lincoln's loss, coupled with Sioux City's 10-5 win over Albuquerque, cut the Chiefs' lead over the second-place Soos to 2½ games.

Frank Scalzi's mountain boys parlayed a slick 8-hitter by Ollie Brantley and a 13-hit barrage for the win.

Brantley was never in serious trouble after the Sky Sox took advantage of Hurst's first-inning wildness and a pair of hits for a 2-0 lead.

Lincoln couldn't get 2 hits in an inning until the ninth and by that time the hay was in the barn.

The only Chiefs' tally came in the fifth inning when Harry Williams doubled, took third on a wild pitch and tallied on pinchhitter Bennie Malcolm's sacrifice fly.

Colorado Springs, meanwhile, piled up a comfortable margin off Hurst and reliever Ronnie Sheetz.

The Sky Sox got single runs in the third and fourth off Leon, an unearned run off Sheetz in the sixth and two more of the fireman in the ninth.

Veteran Art Cuitti was the big man in the Springs' attack, socking 4 hits—including a pair of doubles—in 5 trips and driving in 2 runs.

The same clubs meet again tonight at Sherman Field. Game time is 8 p.m., with lefty Bill Dial (2-1) pitching for Lincoln against the Sky Sox' Hal Trosky (0-0.) It will be the first Ladies Nite of the year—gals admitted for a service charge.

Smoke Signals . . . Lincoln second-baseman Julie Javier missed the contest because of the leg injury he suffered Monday night. Outfielder Dave Brennan spilled him . . . Sky Sox centerfielder Joe Hicks made a sensational one-hand leap against the wall in the seventh to rob Marcus Cobos of an extra base hit . . . Attendance was 829 . . . General Manager Dick Wagner announced that a giant fireworks display will follow the night game on Memorial Day. The Chiefs will celebrate the holiday by playing at 2 and 8 p.m.

SE, Rockets Gain Finals

. . . Imperial, Millard Win Titles

By Al Beebe

Home run power scored the winning runs as 2 Lincoln high schools advanced to the state Class A baseball final with wins Tuesday afternoon.

Southeast's Bill Redmond hit a 360-foot blast to pace an 8-2 win over Boys Town, while Jan Wall powered one 375 feet as Northeast topped Omaha Cathedral, 8-5.

Northeast managed only 4 hits off Cathedral pitcher Terry Finnigan, but 11 walks proved his downfall. There was 1 on base when Wall homered in the fifth, and the bases were loaded in the 4th when Jim Portsche stroked his first hit of the year, a triple into the right field corner.

Cathedral got 6 scattered hits off winning NE pitcher Tom Phillips and Wall. Phillips gave up all 5 Cathedral runs in pitching 5-plus innings. Wall relieved with 2 on base, and a sharp single immediately scored both runs. But Wall then slammed the door.

Wall will face SE's classy sophomore Keith Sieck in the championship game at 3 p.m. today on the Nebraska diamond.

Sieck went 5 innings Tuesday in picking up the Southeast victory, giving up both runs (unearned) and 3 hits. Redmond spelled Sieck in the final 2 innings with a hitless effort.

The Knights racked Cowboy hurler Dan Crow for 11 safeties as a 4-run third inning broke a 2-2 tie and sewed up the game. Redmond's solo homer was the big blow of the inning. Redmond also singled twice and Denny Puelz and Sieck also chipped in a pair of hits to pace the attack.

Earlier Tuesday Imperial won the Class B crown by defeating Columbus St. Bonaventure 9-3, and Millard won the C championship by trimming defending champion Center 7-4.

SE Players Join Optimist Legion Team; Northeast Out

By Bob McCoy

Lincoln Southeast will join with Lincoln High to form this summer's Capital City representative in Junior American Legion baseball, Lincoln Optimist general manager Elmer Reiling announced Tuesday.

Players from Southeast will replace Lincoln Northeast, which had combined with Lincoln High to form past Optimist teams.

Under state legion rules, no team may draw from a total high school enrollment of over 2,500. Southeast and Northeast both were eligible to combine with Lincoln High for this season.

But according to Reiling, the Optimist committee decided to "give some of the other Capital City high school players a chance to make the team this season."

Since Northeast's 1958 prep team contained only a few players who would meet the age requirements for legion ball, Southeast, heavy with young talent, was selected.

Bob Lohrberg, instructor at Irving Junior High and an assistant coach at Southeast, has been named Optimist coach this summer.

Lohrberg is a former University of Nebraska diamond star and has served as NU freshman baseball coach along with handling managerial duties in the now-defunct Pioneer Nite League.

The first Optimist workout is scheduled for 4 p.m. Thursday at Muny diamond.

The Optimists are scheduled to open their season at home against Nebraska City June 8 at Antelope and then entertain Omaha Storz at Sherman Field the following evening.

Dick Knaub Wins PCC Broad Jump

Los Angeles (AP) — Dick Knaub, former Scottsbluff, Neb., high school star, won the broad jump in the Pacific Coast Conference track meet Tuesday with a jump of 24 feet, 9 inches. He now is competing for the University of California at Los Angeles.

Redbirds Win, 3-1

The Penitentiary Redbirds scored two runs in the bottom of the second behind the hitting of Irvin Tail and Eddie McCoy and held on for a 3-1 baseball victory over Sigma Chi Tuesday.

Wilt Has Plan To Stop Tall Cagers--Put Basket On Floor

New York (AP)—Seven-foot Wilt Chamberlain Tuesday came up with a plan for penalizing the tall man in basketball—put the basket on the floor.

"That's the only way I can see to do it," the two time All-American from the University of Kansas added. "People talk about raising the basket. That only helps the tall man.

"Put it on the floor and then everybody can reach it."

A sprawl of arms and legs as he draped himself in a plush chair on the 12th floor of a Madison Avenue skyscraper, Wilt the Stilt articulately parried the questions—many of them barbed and personal—of a hard-bitten press corps.

"How come," asked one reporter, "you had a 1956 Oldsmobile in college when you say your family in Philadelphia has to struggle to get along and you got only $15 a month at Kansas for incidentals?"

"I bought a cheap car several years ago and just worked up," Wilt said. "I could afford it because I had a good job in the summer at Kutsher's (in Monticello, N.Y.)"

On the business side, Chamberlain said he hoped to get the tour started by July 1, with a team of white players meeting a team of Negroes.

He said he had made offers to four players—Sweetwater Clifton of the Detroit Pistons, John Crawford of Iowa State, Jackie Moore, formerly of the Philadelphia Warriors, and Elzie Lewis of Central State.

Wilt

He said he thought college basketball was too slow and should adopt a rule such as the pros' 26-second rule compelling a team to take a shot within 26 seconds after gaining possession.

"When I went to college I thought all I had to do was shoot the basket and it didn't make any difference how," Wilt said. "But the NCAA put in rules saying the goals had to be made a certain way.

"But I'll tell them one thing. As hard as they try, there's nothing they can do against the big man. He's here to stay."

Phillies Clip Frisco 5-1

Philadelphia (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies stopped the National League-leading San Francisco Giants 5-1 Tuesday night with Rip Repulski hitting a three-run homer. Righthander Jack Sanford scattered 10 hits, all but one singles.

Repulski's homer, his sixth, came in the first inning after Richie Ashburn walked and Solly Hemus singled. Righthander Stu Miller, the loser, was pulled in the first for Al Worthington. He was followed by two more pitchers.

Ashburn, who had three hits, helped account for the other Phillies' runs.

Pirates Topple Los Angeles 5-3

Pittsburgh (AP)—Bob Skinner's third home run of the season into the right field stands in the fifth inning Tuesday night broke a 3-3 tie and boosted the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 5-3 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Pirates collected 10 hits off starter Don Drysdale, Ed Roebuck and Fred Kipp. Six of them went for extra bases. Drysdale was charged with his eighth loss. He has two victories.

A's Cut Turley's Streak

Kansas City (AP) — Kansas City halted big Bob Turley's perfect pitching record, plastering him for six runs, including Bob Cerv's first-inning homer as the Athletics pummeled the New York Yankees 7-3 Tuesday night.

The big righthander, who had won seven straight for the Yankees, including four shutouts and a 0.86 earned run average, ran afoul of the A's bats early and departed in the fifth inning in favor of Art Ditmar.

When he trudged off the mound his revised earned run average read 1.61 and his Yankee teammates were badly beaten as chunky Jack Urban pitched a six-hitter. One of those six hits was Elston Howard's fourth home run that sailed over the left field fence.

Turley got into trouble by walking Mike Baxes to start the game. Bob Martyn forced Baxes but Hector Lopez hit a two-bagger to right field and set the stage for Cerv's twelfth home run. The big left-fielder clouted a 400-foot shot to left center and the Yankees never recovered.

Cerv and Lopez led the A's 9-hit attack with three hits each.

The Athletics scored again in the third as Baxes walked and Martyn sent him to third with a single to right field. Lopez bunted down the first base line and beat it out for a hit as Baxes scored easily ahead of Marv Throneberry's throw.

Harry Chiti's triple and Baxes' two-out single got another Kansas City run in the fourth. The A's knocked out Turley in the next inning as Lopez unloaded his third straight hit and came around on Cerv's single and a force-out grounder hit by Bill Tuttle off Ditmar.

The Yankees made their only other threat in the seventh after both Tony Kubek and Mickey Mantle struck out. Gil McDougald singled and Jerry Lumpe tripled him home. Elston Howard's

Sports Editor, The Star

Lincoln tennis fans were among the last to see Lew Hoad in operation against Pancho Gonzales on the Jack Kramer pro-net swing.

The 23-year-old Aussie, who left the amateur ranks for $125,000 (2-year-deal) from Kramer called it quits after losing his seventh straight match to the peerless Gonzales.

An ailing leg finally caught up with Lew in Denver and he returned to Los Angeles for hospitalization. Ken Rosewall has replaced Hoad on the Kramer tour.

Gonzales whipped Hoad 48 times in 82 tries before the pesky leg finally sidelined the young Aussie star.

According to a story in the Denver Post, Hoad was not in shape to play Gonzales for most of the tour—which means he was hobbled at Lincoln.

Dr. Omar Fareed, Kramer's physician, told the Post's Jim Sheehan: "He (Hoad) shouldn't even be out there playing . . . . When I examined him last night he had lost pin-prick sensation in his right leg and foot."

Lincoln fans noticed particularly that Hoad didn't make any spectacular attempts to return some of Gonzales' lobs when the two stars played here. Many times Lew would just stop short and let the ball go, with a sort of desperation look on his face. Some thought it was because he figured Gonzales was just too good and he didn't have a chance to return the ball.

But Hoad offered an explanation when he announced his departure from the tour:

"I can go forward all right, but I can't go to either side or back when he lobs one."

PS: Hoad was certainly impressive here (although Gonzales looked like the master) and it's amazing that he played as well as he did considering his physical condition. Wonder what he'd do with two good pins?

Lawrence scribe Earl Morey has taken offense because several Big 8 schools are considering a kiss-off of the Kansas Relays—KU's highly-successful track recruiting instrument.

"Frank Sevigne, track coach at Nebraska, apparently is a sore loser," Earl writes. "If this movement to stay out of the Kansas Relays sticks, Sevigne may have some revenge of sorts against all-winning Kansas, but he'll still have to whip Easton on the track to convince this reporter he's completed the job he set out to do—bring Nebraska back as a track power."

I don't know how folks in Kansas feel about losing, but in these parts we admire a fellow who doesn't take kindly to getting whipped and tries to do something about it.

Sevigne, to be sure, is a "sore loser" and Nebraskans wouldn't have it any other way. And Frank will no doubt agree with Earl that his job hasn't been fully accomplished until he has beaten Easton.

That day may never come, but Sevigne is doing a mighty fine job of trying. As far as I'm concerned, this also includes offering as little assistance as possible to Easton's recruiting program. Bill is one of the best recruiters in the business, and that's to his credit.

But there's no reason why Nebraska should help make his job easier.

On the latter point, I think Sevigne has made Nebraska a track "power." Not enough of one to overthrow the Jayhawks yet, but certainly a force to be reckoned with. An undefeated indoor-outdoor year, numerous records and a second-place conference finish is indicative of some power, I'd say.

Aggies' Gate Payoff To Football Coach Ruled Legal

Austin (AP)—Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said Tuesday that Paul (Bear) Bryant's contract last year as head football coach at Texas A&M was legal "and we plan no further action."

State Auditor C. H. Cavness had questioned the legality of Bryant's contract. Bryant was to receive $15,000 a year plus one per cent of gross receipts from football games. Cavness had questioned whether the contingent supplementary payment of one per cent was legal.

"We have concluded that the contract of Head Football Coach and Athletic Director Paul Bryant does not violate any provision of the state law," Wilson said.

"We have reached the same conclusion regarding the transaction whereby the college purchased a residence from Coach Bryant. It seems agreed by all parties concerned that the college received full value for the funds expended."

Bryant, now head coach and athletic director at Alabama, sold to the college for $30,000 a house for which he paid $22,400 but made landscaping improvements.

While A&M sought a successor to Bryant early this year, President M. T. Harrington and other officials claimed Bryant was receiving only his $15,000 salary and rent-free use of the house. There were reports Bryant received up to $60,000 from the college and other sources.

In addition to his $15,000 annual salary his last year, Bryant reportedly received about $5,000 more as his one per cent cut of the gate.

New Head Coach Jim Myers said he does not get the one per cent. He reportedly has a $15,000 a year contract.

Medicine Creek, Whitney Reservoir Top Fish Spots

Medicine Creek holds the crappie fishing spotlight for the third straight week. Gene Hornbeck, Game Commission Writer-Photographer covering the fishing there over the weekend, reports that 300 to 400 fishermen were still taking limits and near limits of the panfish.

Officers John Harpham of Bassett and Jack Morgan of Valentine report fishing in the sandhills as good to excellent, with bullhead fishing on Rat and Big Alkali Lakes hitting its peak. Harpham also reports that Long Lake is producing very good catches of crappie and perch to the few fishermen that are fishing it.

Lee Bowers, conservation officer at Benkelman, reports very good crappie fishing at Swanson Reservoir. He also reports that Kenneth Cole of Trenton landed a 6-pound blue and a 5½-pound channel at Swanson.

A few bragging size fish were landed over the weekend. Gene Hornbeck reports checking two 7-pound walleye from Medicine Creek — Jim Carter of Liberal, Kans., and George VanVleet of Goodland, Kans. shared the honors. Both men caught their fish on a large minnow.

Bill Greb of Beaver City checked in with a nice catch of white bass from the Republican River west of Holbrook, a few fish went over 2-pounds.

The hottest all around fishing in Nebraska is probably at Whitney Reservoir. Cecil Avey, area officer, reports good to excellent fishing on all species.

Fishing pressure on the reservoirs such as Medicine and McConaughy is listed as heavy. Heavy concentrations of fishermen also are reported in the northeast section of the state in and around the metropolitan areas. Sandhill pressure on lakes and streams is listed as very light.

Trout: Excellent catches of trout are reported from the White River and Big Bordeaux Creek. Good catches reported in from Long Pine, Plum, Fairfield, Soldiers, Hat, Schlagel, and Boardman Creeks.

Bullheads: Excellent—Big and Little Nemaha Rivers. Good—Swanson Reservoir and Republican River.

Catfish: Good—North Loup, Elkhorn and North Platte Rivers and Medicine Creek above the Reservoir, and Whitney Reservoir

Bass: Good—Roseberry, Schoolhouse, and Sandpit Lakes in eastern Nebraska. Also good at Alexandria, Verdon, and Medicine Lakes and Whitney Reservoir.

White Bass: Good—McConaughy, Republican River west of Holbrook, Whitney Reservoir and Maloney Lake.

Walleye: Good — Lakes Alexandria, Whitney, and McConaughy Reservoirs.

Crappie: Sand pits in Saunders, Sarpy, and Douglas Counties, and Fremont Lakes are listed as good. Whitney and Harlan Reservoirs as excellent.

Carp: Excellent—Humboldt, Dead Timber, and Auburn Lakes. Good—Big Nemaha River, Blue River, Rose and Turkey Creeks.

Others: Bluegill good on Medicine in the sandhills, also perch at Roseberry and Big Alkali good.

Relay Records Took Beating From '58 Prep Spikers; New Leaders In Mile

(Third in a series reviewing the 1958 Nebraska high school track season and the all-time prep honor roll. Today—The relays.)

By Al Beebe

Relay races and records took a beating in 1958.

On the all-time honor roll, 1st and 2nd fell in the mile relay, 4 teams moved in on the 880 list, and an even half dozen gained the 2-mile ranking.

The 2nd, 3rd and 4th spots in both the 880 and 2-mile are now held by 1958 teams.

Omaha Central's team of Frank Jones, Arnold Dailey (both juniors), and seniors Gene Owen and Ken Russell, bettered the old state and all-time record by nearly 2 seconds with the 3:25.0 in the state meet. Boys Town also bettered the old mark, running 3:25.7 while anchored by sensational Bob Cross.

Scottsbluff's 880 team of Jim Pointer, Gary McClanahan, Sid Henderson and Ray Knaub was just a tenth of a second off the state mark with 1:31.2. Omaha Tech and Central each were spaced apart by a yard, running 1:31.3 and 1:31.4.

A Boys Town time of 1:32.7 at the Sioux City Relays also makes the list in a tie for 25th place.

Lexington led the assault on the 2-mile mark, but failed to unseat the 8:17.6 run by a Hastings team back in 1926, before the relay was a part of the regular program.

But the Lexington time of 8:21.6 is the best since then. Jerry Yuetter, Dean Nelsen, Phil Crowley and Dick Stuckey turned the trick.

Crowley and Stuckey brought the Minutemen from far back and finally caught Lincoln Northeast's anchor man, Glen Heiser, coming into the stretch. But Heiser managed to hold off a fast-finishing Beatrice team and ran 8:22.2 to the 8:22.4 by Beatrice.

Minatare's 8:24.9, just .3 off the Class B record, is good enough for 8th in the all-time list, while Omaha North took 16th with its 8:28.8 in the state meet.

the 880 list, and seven teams gained the 2-mile ranking.

Cozad's 8:29.3 time run in the Gothenburg Relays last week gained 19th in the all-time list and 6th on the season chart. Valentine's early-season 8:29.7 is 20th in the honor roll.

Several relay times posted in the Grand Island Relays last week altered final positions in the season top 10.

In the mile relay, Grand Island lowered its time to 3:32.7 from 3:33.8, but remains in 3rd place.

Three teams gained 2-mile relay positions. Grand Island's 8:33.1 is 8th, followed now by Boys Town at 8:34.0 and Kearney at 8:34.8. Times for Omaha Central, Creighton Prep, Pierce and Stanton were knocked from the top 10.

Clabber Girl Bittersweet Chocolate Cake

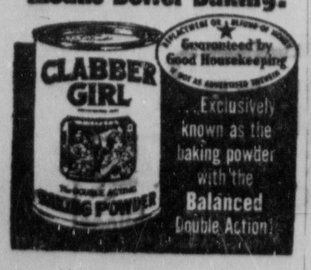

The Recipe

Sift together 2¼ cups sifted cake flour, 2 teaspoons Clabber Girl Baking Powder, and ½ teaspoon salt. Cream together ½ cup shortening, 2 cups firmly packed brown sugar, and 1½ teaspoons vanilla extract. Add 2 eggs; beat until light and fluffy. Add 4 squares (4 ounces) unsweetened chocolate, melted and cooled. Add dry ingredients alternately with 1 cup milk, adding flour mixture first and last; beat thoroughly after each addition. Pour equal amounts of batter into two greased and floured 9 x 1½-inch round layer cake pans. Bake in a 375° F. (moderate) oven about 30 minutes. Cool before frosting. Yield: 2—9-inch layers.

You should know this about baking...

It's the balance of ingredients in baking powder that governs its leavening action. Only when these are scientifically balanced can you be sure of uniform action in the mixing bowl plus that final, balanced rise to light and fluffy texture in the oven.

Balanced Double Action means Better Baking!

Bar On Federal Law Voted

Washington (AP)—The House Judiciary Committee approved by a split vote a bill to keep any federal law from killing state laws in the same field unless Congress specifically says so.

Atty. Gen. Rogers immediately opposed the bill, calling it a "shotgun approach."

Chairman Emanuel Celler (D-NY) said the measure is unconstitutional and announced he will fight it on the House floor. He said it is opposed by the Departments of Justice and Labor, the AFL-CIO, the railroad brotherhoods, and the railroad and aviation industries.

"It is apparent that the primary purpose of this bill is to strike at the growing and budding rights of Negroes, especially in labor and public life," Celler told newsmen after the committee's closed-door action.

Opposes

After the vote Rogers told a news conference he opposed the bill "because effects would be retroact and no on knows what th effects would be."

"This shotgun kind of a proach is very harmful to th whole legal system," Roger said.

"We are opposed to any legislation which limits the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court in any area. In any judicial system, you have to have a final arbiter."

The bill was introduced by Rep. Howard W. Smith (D-Va) after the Supreme Court reversed a conviction of Communist leader Steve Nelson under Pennsylvania anti-subversive laws. The high court held that Congress had preempted this field when it passed a federal anti-subversive act.

Smith, a leader of the southern Democratic bloc in Congress, is author of the federal law the Supreme Court cited in the Nelson case. Smith said he and Congress never intended that it supersede state laws.

State Petroleum Group Backs Safety Campaign

The Nebraska Petroleum Industries Committee has announced its support of the summertime "slow down and live" safety campaign.

Sponsored by the Assn. of State and Provincial Safety Co-ordinators, the campaign runs from Memorial Day through Labor Day.

"Haste makes waste, particularly on the highway," said R. E. Osborn of Omaha, Petroleum Industries Committee chairman. "It's a wise driver who slows down to live."

Stanton Delaplane's POSTCARD

Miss No. 48 on the Tennochy Ballroom bill-of-fare in Hong Kong is a pretty Chinese girl of 23 years. She wears the high-collar and slit-skirt cheongsam and has never heard of the best seller, "The World of Suzie Wong"

The name of Miss 48 is Wai Fun Wong. But she taxi dances under her English name — Suzie Wong.

☆ ☆ ☆

"I finished "The World of Suzie Wong" on the Pan Am plane coming down from Tokyo. I thought it was a real piece of Rover Boys and the hero was a fathead. But the book sells like hot Chinese rice cakes. and a Broadway play is being readied.

You may remember that the fiction Suzie Wong was a Hong Kong nightclub girl too.

The real Suzie Wong has been dancing at Tennochy for a year and a half.

It costs about $1.50 U.S. to dance with Suzie.

She gets a little less than half of this. Her day starts at 6:30 for tea dancing. At 8:30 she takes a break for dinner. She quits at 1.

"Then what, Suzie?"

"Cannot sleep. Sometime I play mah-jongg. Sometime read books. About 5 o'clock sleepy.

"What kind of books?"

"Love story. Boy and girl fall in love."

☆ ☆ ☆

We went over to Tennochy with Mr. Y. Y. Wong, the playboy of the Eastern world (Chinese gentlemen love to be known as playboys. It gives a lot of face.)

There are dozens of dance halls in Hong Kong. But Y.Y. said Tennochy was the best. "Prettiest girls. Inwestigate for yourself."

It is hard to inwestigate Tennochy — the lighting is like the inside of a black cat. However, Suzie said 120 Filipino girls work there. There was a good band from Manila. Filipino bands blanket the Far East and Filipinos are known as "the troubadors of the Orient."

Suzie dances with Chinese playboys, American sailors, tourists, big spenders from the merchant marines. She can dance anything — bop, tango, samba. You name it.

She has no steady boy friend.

If you want to take Suzie to dinner, you "buy her out." That is, you pay the management the remainder of the evening at the $1.50 per hour rate.

Being bought out and taken to dinner gives a girl face, too. Like marriage, it has a more permanent air about it.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Tennochy hands you a sort of menu for all this deep-dish apple pie when you come in the door.

"Please write (V) in your order," it says. You check off the name of the girls you want. If they are not busy, the head lady sends them over.

There are some wonderful names on the list. Miss No.1 is Ding Lai Wha. We are also offered Too Cham Har, Ching Ching, Mimi Kwan, Lock Har, Chor Bing Ying and Man Wai.

Miss No. 23 is listed simply as "Mary."

Susie's main overhead is her wardrobe of evening chongsams. To Americans, all slit-skirt dresses look alike. But styles change here just like in Paris.

"This year collar is higher. So is slit in skirt."

The collar is rounded instead of square this year. It comes right up under the ears. The slit in the skirt is halfway between knee and hip. When Chinese girls sit down this year, they uncover about the same amount of leg you would in a bathing suit.

Chinese men are completely uninterested though in Chinese legs. Collars are what bring them to a slow boil. Americans are the ones who like legs.

BEAR'S OWNER APPEALS FROM DECISION IN DAMAGE SUIT

Kenneth Glover, Nebraska City, has filed with the State Supreme Court a transcript of an appeal from an Otoe County District Court decision which awarded William L. Crunk $1,067.45 damages he allegedly suffered from being bitten by a bear of Glover's.

Crunk sued for $3,377.45 damages he allegedly sustained when Glover's bear, caged at the Nebraska City sale barn, bit off the end of the 3rd finger of his right hand, the transcript said.

The district court awarded him $1,067.45, and Glover filed a motion for a new trial which was overruled Apr. 12

Burwell Youths Help Community

Burwell, Neb. — Garfield County youths unleashed pent-up energies constructively over the week-end in a 2-pronged effort: to help protect the living and show respect for the dead.

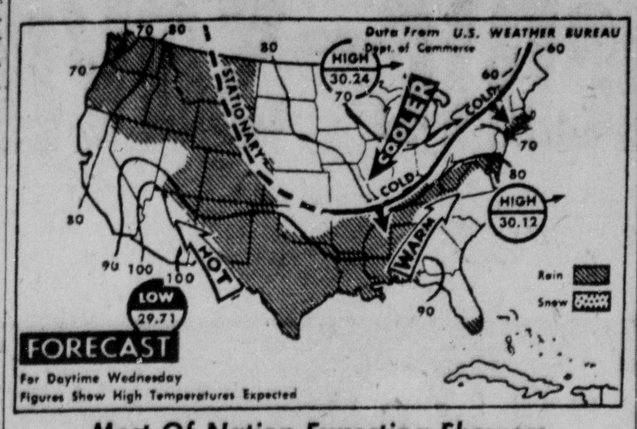

The 2 seemingly unrelated projects, tied together through planning to be carried out the same day, were an ambitious traffic and home safety check-up campaign, and a full-fledged cleanup at the Burwell community's Cotton Wood Cemetery.

Moving force behind the projects was assistant extension agent for Garfield, Loup and Wheeler counties, Lin Helton, working with George Coder, Garfield District Extension agent. Helton is cutting his teeth on Agricultural Extension work in his present post.

Helton, a transplanted Oklahoman, said the car check-up practice is common in that state. Both the car check project and the cemetery, also his idea, were "firsts" at Burwell. A similar auto check point was set up at Burwell. A similar auto check point was set up at Bartlett under Helton's planning May 17.

Cooperation among local youth organizations underlined both activities. At the east entrance to Burwell from Highways 91 and 11, cars were halted for a safety check of horns, lights, wind shield, brakes and windshield wipers.

Meanwhile, members of the young men and women's organization of the Burwell area turned out in force to clean up the cemetery. An estimated 45 youngsters toiled in the hot sun at different times during the day.

Annual CAP Wing Search Slated

Omaha (AP)—Nebraska Civil Air Patrol units will hold their annual wing search and rescue training exercise at the Omaha Municipal Airport Saturday and Sunday, May 31 and June 1.

Col. H. James Grove, wing commander, expects about 200 members and 40 planes to participate.

Maj. John Surprise, USAF liaison officer for the Iowa CAP wing, will be in Omaha to present the search problem and grade the effectiveness of the mission.

There will be a pre-briefing session Saturday afternoon and on Sunday there will be a pre-flight breakfast before takeoff time, which is 9 a.m.

Col. Grove said volunteer search crews of the CAP flew more than 15,000 hours on authorized missions in the United States last year. The only cost to the air force was the gas and oil consumed—$36,000.

He said had these hours been flown by the Air Force in the smallest multi-engined aircraft in general use, the cost would have been $640,000. Had the Gruman SA-16 Albatross, mainstay of the Air Rescue Service been used, the cost would have been $1,706,880.

Operations Research Course Slated At NU

An operations Research Short Course will be given at the University of Nebraska June 9-14.

Operations research consists of the use of a modern group of techniques to assist management in problem-solving and decision-making.

Staff members at the Institute will include: Dr. J. M. F. Vickers and Dr. Irvin L. Reis, both associate professors of mechanical engineering at the University of Nebraska; Prof. George F. Schrader, faculty member at the University of Illinois; Prof. Henry W. Babel of Ohio State University; and Dennis Coleman, staff member of the University's department of mechanical engineering.

50-Year Class Reunion At Peru College

Peru, Neb. — Nearly one-half of the known living members of the 38th graduating class of the then Nebraska State Normal School at Peru returned to the campus of their alma mater for their 50-year class reunion. A total of 128 were graduated during the year 1908.

Thirty-two members of the class are deceased and the whereabouts of 36 members is unknown. The 27 returning members of the class of 1908 reside in 7 states besides Nebraska — Colorado, Idaho, Oregon, Arizona, Kansas, South Dakota and California.

The class reunion, held in connection with the 88th commencement week activities at Nebraska's first college, brought the largest number of returning members for a 50-year reunion at Nebraska State Teachers College at Peru. Fifty-year reunions have been held each year since 1951.

A special guest of the college for the reunion activities was Nellie May Schlee (Mrs. M. E.) Vance, 1926 South 25th, Lincoln, who was a Peru State faculty member from 1904 until 1910. A professor emeritus in art at the University of Nebraska, Mrs. Vance has worked under a Carnegie Foundation grant in public school art for the past 25 years.

The 1908'ers present for the reunion, their home town at the time of attendance at the college, and their present address include:

State Taking No Stand On Air Routes

...Lincoln Included

The State Aeronautics Department will take no stand on requests from 3 airlines for additional service between Nebraska and Kansas "until all testimony has been given the Civil Aeronautics Board on the requests," Director Rolland Harr said Tuesday.

Central Airlines has asked for an Omaha-Wichita route, proposing to fly 2 roundtrips daily, one via Lincoln and Manhattan. The other would also include stops at Salina and Hutchinson.

Frontier Airlines and Ozark Airlines also are requesting similar routes for additional service. The route is included in the so-called Kansas-Oklahoma case, and is separate from the 7-states case recently approved by the CAB.

Area Proposed For Recreation

This is the proposed general area where Commissioner Del Lienemann would have the county construct a 1,000-acre recreational area using inheritance tax funds. He said he has not checked to determine if the site would be available.

Recreation Area Proposal Referred To County Attorney

A proposal that a 1,000-acre recreational area be constructed by the county south of Lincoln was referred by the County Board Tuesday to the County Attorney's office to determine if such a proposal is legal.

Commissioner Del Lienemann had suggested the establishment of the area Monday. It would include an 18-hole golf course, boating and fishing lakes, swimming pool, baseball fields and an outdoor amphitheater.

Board Chairman Russell Brehm suggested the County Attorney's office study the plan t determine if it could be financed by estate inheritance tax funds as Lienemann had proposed.

In other action, the Board agreed to offer the use of the old County Detention Home at 746 Rose to the Home Guard Foundation, a non-profit youth organization.

Mrs. William Grinstead of Lincoln, Foundation president, appeared before the Board and said her group would like to rent the home for a youth center. The Board agreed to rent the home for $100 on a monthly basis.

A lease will be drawn up and the Foundation is expected to move into the vacant 12-room home in July if the agreement is entered into.

The Board also said it would make a decision within the next few weeks as to who will get the $500 reward it offered for the capture of Charles Starkweather, convicted of murder last Friday in the shooting Jan. 27 of Robert Jensen of Bennet. A total of $2,929 had been offered for his capture by various organizations, and no decision has yet been made as to who will receive it.

Each organization is expected to determine to whom the money it posted will go.

Union Seeks Purchase Of Church

The Teamster's Union is negotiating for the purchase of the American Lutheran Church at 24th and Vine, according to the Rev. Orville O. Lehman, pastor.

If negotiations are successful, according to the Rev. Mr. Lehman, the congregation will likely build a new church at 42nd and Vine.

The Teamsters reportedly would use the building as a union meting place, and also as an office building for local activities. Teamsters officials said, however, that the building would have to be remodeled for their use.

The congregation has authorized negotiations with the union, and has also given the go-ahead to the building committee to proceed with preliminary studies of a new building.

The present structure was built in 1935, and enlargements were made in 1947 and 1952. The present congregation is composed of 650 baptized members and 425 confirmed.

The Rev. Mr. Lehman said Tuesday construction on the new church could possibly start in early 1959 if negotiations are successful and plans are completed.

N.Y. STOCKS IRREGULAR

New York (AP)—Some steels and other selected issues showed strength late Tuesday but the stock market as a whole spent its second straight session in a thoroughly irregular condition.

Prices of key stocks were a fairly even mixture of plus and minus signs. A few special situations added variety.

Early in the day an unusually large number of stocks opened unchanged. There was a slightly lower trend at the start and some stronger signs near the close but generally speaking Tuesday's market was a standoff.

Volume dropped to 2,180,000 shares compared with 2,500,000 Monday and was the lightest since May 19.

Technically, the market was in a tough area of resistance, just below the year's highs. No big stimulus came to move it decisively.

Bipartisan agreement that there should be no big anti-recession tax cut came as no shock to Wall Street as this has come to be a stale subject. The French crisis continued to inject a note of uncertainty. The rise in steel output for the fourth straight week was encouraging. So was the new boost in copper prices by custom smelter. Steel shares were helped also by short covering, brokers said.

The popular market averages were depressed a bit by a number of key stocks going ex-dividend.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dropped 30 cents to $169.30 with the industrials down 40 cents, the rails down 70 cents and the utilities up 10 cents.

Of 1,163 issues traded, losers totaled 488 and gainers 419. New highs for the year were 73 and new lows 5.

Of the 15 most active stocks, 8 rose, 4 fell and 3 were unchanged.

American Stock Exchange prices were irregular on volume of 800,000 shares compared with 830,000 Monday.

BOND MARKET

New York (AP) — Corporate bonds closed higher in moderate trading Tuesday. U. S. government bonds were irregular on small turnover.

Rails, utilities and top grade investment issues led the corporate rise. Industrials were unchanged and foreign dollar liens eased.

Corporate trading declined to $4,810,000 par value on the big board from $5,380,000 Monday.

All Except Rye On Losing Side

Chicago (AP) — Grain futures traders who wanted to buy every offering in sight Monday were almost as eager Tuesday to be rid of them.

Except for rye, all contracts went to the losing side at the opening on the board of trade and stayed there all day. There were some slight rallies along the way, notably in wheat, but profit-takers saw to it that they did not carry far.

At the finish most deliveries had given up about half of Monday's good gains. Rye, however, moved on ahead after an unsteady start on a good demand following word of hot, dry weather in the growing areas. As buying increased it forced out a fair volume of short-covering to add to the upward force.

Dealers said favorable weather over the winter wheat regions of the Southwest caused liquidation of that grain. Prices had been firm recently on reports of too much rainfall. But Tuesday there were advices that the harvest actually had begun in some scattered spots.

Commission houses were heavy sellers and other traders joined them when it became apparent that exports and other commercial business were too light to sustain a rally.

Wheat exports this week have been absent and in that connection the trade also noted crop reports from Europe of continued satisfactory growth last week and trade comments that France and Italy may have surpluses for export.

U.S. exports already are well behind those of a year ago while Canada has shown a gain in overseas wheat sales.

At the close, wheat was 1⅛-1⅜ cents a bushel lower, corn ½-⅝ lower, oats ⅛-⅜ lower, rye ⅞-1⅜ higher, soybeans ½-¾ lower, and lard 7 to 18 cents a hundred pounds lower.

The Department of Agriculture reported it had accepted subsidy bids of 20 cents a bushel on exports of 413,500 bushels of corn but traders took little or no notice of it.

Starting Date For A-Plant Undecided

Groundbreaking plans for the nuclear power plant at Hallam remain indefinite, Consumers Public Power District officials said Tuesday. Ceremonies are planned at the site about the last of June.

Meanwhile, CPPD nuclear specialist Dr. Emerson Jones of Lincoln expressed enthusiasm over the success of a related experimental nuclear power project in California.

The Atomic Energy Commission had reported the sodium reactor experiment operated by North American Aviation reached its design power level of 20,000 kilowatts of heat May 21.

TYPISTS
Double Your Pay
Five Shifts—40 Hour Week

When you have become proficient as a teletypesetter operater, plus paid vacation and holidays among other employee benefits in a modern air-conditioned building. The machine you will operate has a standard manual typewriter keyboard. It perforates a tape which tape runs a linotype machine that sets type. Experience indicates that one should be capable of typing a minimum of 50 words per minute with a minimum of errors to be considered a trainee who may become an excellent teletypesetter perforator operator. Although less than 35 words per minute of actual production is considered proficient, line justification makes this work somewhat slower than straight typing. You should also be well acquainted with spelling and grammar. The Journal-Star Printing Co. currently has openings for teletypesetter trainees. 28

New Police Department Changes To 'Define Functions, Responsibilities'

By Virgil Falloon

The 2-division plan for the Lincoln Police Department was designed for "clearly defined functions and responsibilities" and for "greater supervisory control."

This was stressed by the Traffic Division of the International Association of Chiefs Police for the recommended plan which goes into effect next Monday.

The IACP said the new plan has:

1. Clear definition of line and staff functions and proper placement.
2. Definite lines of authority and strategic placement of commanding and supervisory officers.
3. Administrative control within workable limits.

The department is divided into 2 major divisions each headed by an assistant chief.

Field Services

Operations Division with the patrol and criminal investigation bureaus each headed by a captain, is responsible for all field services.

The patrol bureau handles all traffic enforcement and investigations, patrol control and general preventive patrolling, while the criminal investigation bureau is responsible for all criminal investigations, juvenile work, and special investigations.

Responsibility for "providing staff services essential to the efficient operations of the field forces" is centered in the Services Division, which is divided into 4 major bureaus.

Two other bureaus were also placed in this division, but the IACP has recommended that traffic engineering be transferred ultimately to the Department of Public Works and the parking violations bureau be placed under the Municipal Court.

4 Bureaus

The 4 major bureaus in the Services Division and their responsibilities:

Records and Communications—all criminal and traffic records, criminal identification services, supervision of communications system and jail operations.

Planning—all departmental fiscal operations, analysis of police records for planning purposes and assignments based on service demands and planning for special events and emergencies.

Safety Education—development, guiding and coordination of a broad program for public education and support of law enforcement.

Personnel and Training—maintain complete personnel records, personnel recruitment and training, refresher courses, and recruitment and training of auxiliary police.

The IACP says the proposed organization "permits specific delegation of and accounting for basic police responsibilities" and "assures adequate attention and supervision of the various police operations."

The IACP also recommended a higher salary schedule for police personnel and additional manpower for a "minimum strength" of 114 men.

The Council has okayed 5 additional men to the present 95 officers and 4 meter maids by Sept 1. It has indicated the salary scale will be considered in the 1958-59 budget.
